A 500-horsepower motor, one of the largest individual units in the province, responded to the touch of a button by Mayor Andrew McGavin (left) this morning and started rolling the new pulp unit of the Sidney Roofing and Paper Company, on the industrial reserve. Part of the company's $125,000 expansion program, the new mill replaces the one that was burned down last August. R. W. May, new manager director of the firm, is standing with the mayor. Because "action" has so often followed a Von Ribbentrop visit, European chancelleries followed the Nazi envoy's mission with keen interest. (Telephoto)

Final Bulletins TERMS CHANGED

STOCKHOLM (CP-Havas) — Foreign Minister Christian Guenther said tonight the Russian peace terms accepted by Finland were not the same as those transmitted to her by Sweden.

The Russian proposals were transmitted to Finland by Sweden after Great Britain had refused to do so on the ground they were exorbitant.

Ex-Official Convicted

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Matthew S. Murray, until recently one of Missouri's most powerful figures — both state Works Progress Administration head and Boss Tom Pendergast's city public works director — was adjudged guilty this afternoon of United States income tax evasion.

GINGER ROGERS GRANTED DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ginger Rogers, glamorous film actress, was given a divorce today from Lew Ayres when she testified the actor "told me to get out and go home to my mother."

Questioned during brief testimony by her attorney, Neil S. McCarthy, Miss Rogers said she and Ayres separated May 14, 1936.

"Had there been criticism on his part of you and your friends?" she was asked.

"He had constantly criticized me and my friends and my work," she said. "It made me very nervous. I lost a lot of weight. Ayres made no appearance and Superior Judge Clement L. Shinn granted the decree by default."

Rights Need Defence

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Roosevelt asserted today that the ending of the Russian-Finnish war "does not yet clarify the inherent right of small nations to the maintenance of their integrity against attack by superior force."

WASTE OF ENERGY WARNING BY SIMON

LONDON (CP) — Sir John Simon today warned Britain against "frittering away our energies discussing elaborate plans for a new Europe," while the essential foundation was not yet built for a future in which there would be living room for all, including Germans.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer addressed a luncheon meeting of the National Liberal Club.

He spoke of the Russian-Finnish treaty, saying the northern European situation had "developed tragically" in the last few days.

"So long as history reserves a place for the story of a brave people facing overwhelming odds it can never omit the name of the sorely tried Finns," he said.

Sir John observed it was not "nesting season at the treasury" and that he was sitting on "a very big egg which had to be hatched on budget day."

U.S. Help Not Wanted, Says London Mirror

LONDON (CP) — On the occasion of his departure from the United Kingdom, The Daily Mirror offered to Sumner Welles, President Roosevelt's "fact-finding" envoy, the "fact" that Great Britain does not ask any help from the United States "that may conflict with big business," but only that "America should not make our task more difficult."

Said the Mirror: "In bidding Welles goodbye we present him with the following facts:

"Welles is a very charming and discreet man. We liked him. We have a tremendous task on hand. We are struggling for our lives. We do not wish to be impeded — even by charming people — in that task."

"There are no secrets about British aims in this double war — a war against German domination and against the added barbarism which Hitler has incited in his all-too-ready followers."

"The Allied aims are clearly to end these twin dangers and to right the wrongs already done before a halt was called. On these aims Mr. Welles will have found no division of opinion either in Paris or London."

The Daily Mail reported that the U.S. Under-Secretary of State had had "friendly and helpful" talks regarding Anglo-American economic relations and the operation of the British contraband control and the searching of U.S. mail.

FIRE IN OTTAWA

OTTAWA (CP) — Fire which broke out in the Alexandra Hotel on downtown Bank Street this afternoon was brought under control less than an hour after it had started. Extent of the damage was not determined immediately.

The blaze started from a short circuit in the basement below the tavern.

Fifty employees and 125 guests in the $200,000 hotel made their way out of the building without difficulty.

Assassination in London

Indian Shoots Sir M. O'Dwyer Wounds Zetland

LONDON (CP) — Sir Michael O'Dwyer, 76, former Lieutenant-Governor of Punjab, was shot dead today at a meeting of the India Association by an Indian gunman, who also wounded Lord Zetland, 64, Secretary of State for India.

bang close to me, then felt a sharp pain in the ribs. It knocked me out and while I was down I heard more shooting.

A bullet was found in his clothes after he was taken to hospital.

While the two men held down the short, dark, thickset Indian, a third took his gun away.

Police would not let any of the audience leave until statements had been taken. High officials of the India Office came quickly. Two doctors in the audience attended Sir Michael but he died almost immediately.

The East India Association, which Lord Zetland earlier had addressed, seeks the welfare of the people of India by lectures, discussions and social contact.

A man who saw the shooting said that as soon as the shots sounded everyone shouted "Police."

"Then an Indian with what looked like a silver gun in his hand shouted 'make way' and began to push people as he came toward me."

"Before he reached me, however, two men — one an officer in the Royal Air Force — jumped on him and held his face to the floor."

"The police came and we were kept two and a half hours and were unable to use the telephone."

Sir Louis Dane, 84, and Lord Lamington, 80, also were wounded. The meeting was held in London.

Sir Michael, an official of Britain's Indian civil service from 1885 to 1920, was known as an advocate of strong measures in handling the Indian problem.

O'Dwyer was lieutenant-governor of the Punjab at the time of the April 13, 1919, massacre at Amritsar, when British troops were ordered to fire into a crowd of Indians, killing 400, and wounding hundreds.

The scene of the shootings was a crowded meeting of the East India Association at Caxton Hall, near Westminster Abbey.

In addition to Lord Zetland, who was grazed by a bullet, the wounded were Lord Lamington, former governor of Bombay, and Sir Louis Dane, like Sir Michael, a former lieutenant-governor of the Punjab, both of whom were wounded in the arm.

Lord Zetland has held the Indian portfolio in the cabinet since 1935.

Sir Michael, who was 75, fell bleeding from a wound in the chest. Lord Zetland fell by the side of his presidential chair.

The Indian gunman shouted "make way" and dashed down the crowded aisle toward the door.

There was a stampede in the crowd for a moment and then two men jumped on the Indian. No one of the audience of 150 was allowed to leave for two and a half hours. Policemen surrounded the building.

Lord Zetland said: "I heard a

ITALY, GERMANY SIGN COAL PACT

ROME (AP) — Italy and Germany today signed an agreement whereby the Reich agrees to supply Italy's coal needs by rail in view of the Allied sea blockade against shipments by sea.

Details of the agreement were withheld, but it was announced that negotiations for it were started by Joachim von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister, and Premier Mussolini last week.

It was reported in political circles that German coal would be routed through three or more Alpine passes. Germany is expected in some commercial quarters to supply cars for the coal from the Ruhr and Westphalia, while Italy would use most of its 6,000 cars for transport of coal from Poland.

The agreement was signed for Germany by Dr. Karl Clodius, economic expert who recently negotiated the new German-Italian trade agreement, and for Italy by Senator Amadeo Giannini.

A Berlin dispatch today said German authorities displayed satisfaction over conclusion of the agreement which eliminates ships as coal carriers between the Reich and Italy.

The agreement apparently does not specify how much coal Germany will transport to Italy, but recent reports of German railway insufficiency, lack of cars and apparent sabotage, make it appear doubtful if the Reich will be able to supply the amount Italy agreed not to take by sea.

FINLAND
The head of the Finnish army, Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, was scheduled to speak to the nation tonight and President Kyösti Kallio tomorrow.

Finland was forced to yield because she lacked arms and "had no faith in the promises of others" to aid in the unequal struggle against a foe 50 times her size, Tanner declared.

NO REJOICING
News of the peace brought no celebration or genes of joy in Helsinki, where people heard the terms for the first time from Tanner. Crowds huddled around public radios anxiously, and many women wept.

Apparently Finnish authorities had maintained the nation's morale to such an extent that the man in the street found it difficult to believe it necessary to give up now, although he seemed to feel that if the government decided to end the struggle it would be suicidal to continue it.

Great Britain and France yesterday offered to send 50,000 troops to Finland, but Tanner said, "the only possible route was through Norway and Sweden, who refused to let the troops through. This refusal proved an unconquerable obstacle."

"Thus Finland was left alone to face an enemy of superior numbers."

He praised highly the conduct of Finland's stubborn defenders, saying their feats were "astonishing and beyond expectations," but reinforcements were lacking.

PRaise FOR PEOPLE
The peace — which reacted to the public with numb bewilderment — also was lauded by Tanner.

"The home front acted beautifully and the people's morale was praiseworthy," he said, under almost daily bombing attacks and other hardships of war.

Tanner described the terms of WHAT STALIN GETS — Russia's demands for territory in peace terms forced on the Finns have proved greater than those made before the war began. In November, the Soviet asked only Hango (Hanko) and a 25-mile slice of the Karelian Isthmus and some territory on the Arctic coast, and offered a piece of her land north of Ladoga in return. Blacked-in areas in the south on the map above show the chief regions the Russians have given Finland three days to agree to cede. Also included is a broad area of Finland in the region of the Arctic Circle, a 30-year lease on Hango and various islands in the Gulf of Finland. In the Arctic district, while Finland keeps the immediate Petsamo area, Russia will get parts of the Sredni and Rybach Peninsula.

Armies Quit Fight, But No Rejoicing Across Finland

By MAX HARRELSON

HELSINKI (AP) — Weary Finland, lacking weapons and skeptical of foreign offers of help, ended her bitter three-and-one-half-months' struggle against Soviet Russia today by yielding more soil and economic and military independence than demanded before the war.

At 10 a.m. P.S.T., the dogged, courageous Finnish army stopped fighting, and a gloomy peace settled over the battlefields, from the corpse-piled Karelian Isthmus to icy Lapland.

Beginning Friday, the Finnish troops will retreat at the rate of seven kilometers (about 4.5 miles) a day to narrowed frontiers fixed by the treaty signed at Moscow last night.

The treaty still was subject to formal ratification by the Finnish diet within three days.

It was officially announced afternoon that War Minister Juho Niuukanen and Minister of Education Uno Hannula had resigned from the government because they opposed accepting the Russian terms.

Foreign Minister Vaino Tanner disclosed the terms to the Finnish people in a broadcast today, declaring Finland was forced to capitulate. The head of the Finnish army, Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, was scheduled to speak to the nation tonight and President Kyösti Kallio tomorrow.

Finland was forced to yield because she lacked arms and "had no faith in the promises of others" to aid in the unequal struggle against a foe 50 times her size, Tanner declared.

NEW MINISTRY
The response of this public to the peace was uncertain as yet, but foreign observers took it for granted that a change in the government was imminent.

Immediately after the foreign minister's broadcast all flags on public buildings were lowered to half mast.

Helsinki's newspapers appeared with heavy black mourning borders.

Tanner said the pact was signed at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Moscow time (6 a.m. P.S.T.).

All signs pointed to a thorough examination of the treaty by parliament. Eighty-five of the 200 seats are held by the Social Democratic Party headed by Foreign Minister Tanner, a principal target of attack in Russia propaganda.

Tanner has headed the foreign affairs ministry in the coalition government formed after the start of the war and his party has the largest parliamentary representation.

Thus came to an end three and a half months of fighting with which the Soviet Union enforced her demands for an improved strategic position in the Baltic area.

BEWILDERED
As the Finns awaited the formality of ratification by their parliament, they were shocked and bewildered by the Russian price for peace — terms far in excess of those which Finland refused at the Kremlin conference table last November.

The order to "cease fire" came on the 105th day of the struggle in which countless thousands had fallen on snowy battlefronts ranging from the Karelian Isthmus and unbowed Viipuri in the southeast to the Arctic reaches of the Petsamo region on the northern coast.

NORTH EUROPE DEFENCE UNION

HELSINKI (AP) — Foreign Minister Christian Guenther said tonight that conversations among Sweden, Norway and Finland for common guarantees for the three countries' frontiers had been agreed on before the Finnish delegation went to Moscow to make peace and that the conversations would be continued in a few days.

GUARANTEES NEEDED
STOCKHOLM (AP) — From the welles of Swedish press comment on the Finnish-Russian war climax there emerged today a proposal that peace be insured by a defence union with Finland. Now, more than ever, the press said, Finns will need Swedish help.

The Conservative Svenska Dagbladet called the Moscow treaty a "hard peace" and asked what the Finnish people would say when they learn its terms.

"Many will say that Sweden is to blame," the newspaper said, "but at least the peace now must be guaranteed by Sweden in a defence union with Finland, and possibly with Norway."

MINGLED FEELINGS
COPENHAGEN (AP) — Scandinavia received the Finnish peace today with relief that the war is over, sadness at Finland's capitulation and with foreboding for the future.

Talk of a northern defence union in which the little countries would band together for protection against more powerful neighbors was brought out in the open.

ITALY FORTIFIES
AGAINST NAZIS
ROME (AP) — General Ubaldo Soddu, Italian under-secretary for war, told the Fascist Chamber today Italy was ready to defend its liberty of action with 1,000,000 trained men under arms and with a fortified bulwark across its Alpine frontiers.

Gen. Soddu outlined development of Italy's military might since the outbreak of war. The occasion of his remarks was the consideration of the war ministry's budget for the coming fiscal year.

The under-secretary for war said the 1,000,000 trained men all were recruited from the younger war classes and added that an ever-increasing mass of reservists guaranteed raising the army within the shortest time to "a level of strength which the exigencies of the situation may require."

Italy is in a "privileged" frontier position, Soddu said, confirming that Italy had fortified her frontier with Germany as well as with France.

Italian fortifications, the under-secretary continued, are not so much artificial systems like the Maginot and Siegfried Lines but more an "integrating" and strengthening of natural obstacles.

Finnish Post-mortem

Britain Was Ready, Chamberlain Pleads, But Aid Not Asked

LONDON (CP)—Great Britain was ready to throw the full weight of available resources into Finland's battle against Russia—in response to an appeal which never came, Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons today.

Leslie Hore-Belisha charged the government was pleading "a pure technicality"—Finland's failure to appeal for men—as an "excuse for inaction."

Shouts of "No" came from various sides of the House.

Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax made a statement similar to Mr. Chamberlain's in the House of Lords.

Lord Snell, Labor leader in the Upper House, expressed "satisfaction that the physical agony of this miraculous little people has now ended, but with a feeling of regret that the spiritual injuries they have received will endure."

What right has once more been defeated and wrong once more triumphed in the world.

It always has been understood that "it was for the Finnish government to decide the course of action they considered best suited to their interests in the light of all available knowledge."

Mr. Chamberlain said in opening the discussion of the Russo-Finnish peace settlement.

"As I informed the House on Monday," Chamberlain said, "we had made preparations to throw the full weight of all available resources into the scales on hearing that this was in accordance with the desires of the Finnish government."

Of Finland, Chamberlain said in his direction they may be assured that the people in this country are united in sympathy for the situation in which they find themselves and admiration for the courage with which they have maintained for so long the struggle against overwhelming odds.

The House cheered this loudly.

"This epic story will ever be recounted in the chronicles of their own history and will remain alive in the memory of all people," Mr. Chamberlain continued.

He said the British government had made plain "their readiness to give all possible help to the Finns in their gallant struggle against aggression."

Clement Attlee, Labor leader, following Chamberlain, declared "we all are agreed in admiration."

for the Finns in their struggle, and while we are relieved that the slaughter has been stopped we deeply regret the success of aggression."

As Britain had been willing to assist the Finns in defending themselves against aggression, said Attlee, "we should render them all the assistance we can in order to repair the damages of this unprovoked attack on their people."

'OUTSIDE PRESSURE' BLAMED

William Gallacher, Communist, declared a settlement of the Finnish question could have been reached in November "without bloodshed if it had not been for outside pressure."

Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax made a statement similar to Mr. Chamberlain's in the House of Lords.

Lord Snell, Labor leader in the Upper House, expressed "satisfaction that the physical agony of this miraculous little people has now ended, but with a feeling of regret that the spiritual injuries they have received will endure."

Large Areas Go to Russia Under Finn Pact

MOSCOW (AP)—A peace treaty halting the undeclared war in Finland with broad territorial, economic and military concessions to Russia was announced today by the Soviet government.

Hostilities ended at noon (1 a.m. P.S.T.) and the Finnish government was allowed three days to ratify the treaty.

Under the treaty, the Russians said, Finland would yield to Russia:

The entire Karelian Isthmus, including the bitterly-contested Mannerheim defence line, strewn with Russian and Finnish corpses.

The swamped but uncaptured city of Viipuri, along with Viipuri Bay and its islands.

All the shore of Lake Ladoga and some territory northeast of the lake (where the Finns reported the slaying of thousands of Russian troops).

A 30-year Russian lease on the peninsula of Hanko, Finnish "Gibraltar" at the mouth of the Gulf of Finland, which Russia intends to convert into a military and naval base.

Various islands in the Gulf of Finland in the region of the Arctic Circle.

Part of the Sredni and Rybach Peninsula on the Arctic Ocean.

A railroad to be built this year to link Russia's White Sea ports with the Gulf of Bothnia.

Operation of a Russian airline across the Petsamo district between Russia and Norway and no restriction on passage of Russian citizens or commerce across that area.

A promise that no Finnish warplanes, warships or submarines, except small coastguard boats, will operate in the Arctic Ocean.

In return, the Finns get peace and a yearly rental of 8,000,000 Finnish markka (about $120,000) for Hanko.

NONAGGRESSION

They must negotiate a trade treaty and make a nonaggression pact with Russia.

Russia's original demands, which the Finns had refused, were much less severe.

They offered Finland part of Soviet Karelia on Finland's long eastern border in return for a small strip of the Karelian Isthmus north-west of Leningrad; a lease on Hanko; part of the Sredni and Rybach Peninsula; and exchange of some islands in the Gulf of Finland.

The new, drastically-revised frontiers are outlined in a map appended to the treaty, but detailed determination is provided by a mixed commission to be formed within 30 days.

Listed specifically in the treaty as concessions to Russia are the towns of Sortavala, Suojarvi and Kakisalmi north and west of Lake Ladoga; the territory east of Markajarvi near the Arctic Circle, and the town of Kuolaarvi on the Salla front.

(These localities have figured in the war news in connection with reports of smashing Finnish victories over the invading red army.)

The lease on Hanko also would include a number of nearby islands and the adjacent waters, the Finns to withdraw within 10 days.

NO ARMY BASES

The Arctic Petsamo-area, occupied now by Russian troops, is to be relinquished to Finland with the provision that Finland will establish no military or naval bases in the Arctic and that Finnish warships there must not exceed 15 of 400 tons each or any number of 100 tons or less.

The Finns would have to build during 1940 a railroad from Kemijarvi to the Russian border to connect with a Russian line to be built from Kandalaska. (As the border is now drawn, two-thirds of this 150-mile distance is in Finland.)

This route would connect with the present railroad from Kemijarvi to the head of the Gulf of Bothnia, and the treaty provides the right of Russian transit over it to Sweden.

The treaty would restore automatically trade relations between Finland and the Soviet Union with a formal trade pact to be negotiated.

Nonaggression is provided in the following clause:

"Both contracting parties undertake mutually to refrain from any attack on each other, not to conclude any alliances and not to participate in any coalitions against one of the contracting parties."

The treaty was drafted in the Russian, Finnish and Swedish languages.

Key to Scandinavia

Seen Held By Soviet

PARIS (CP-Havas)—Future Soviet policy may give Sweden and Norway sad reason to regret the "neutrality" policy which barred Finland from formally requesting the direct aid offered by the Allies.

French observers predicted today.

It is held here that Moscow now holds "the key to Scandinavia" as a result of the peace terms forced on the Finnish delegation led by Premier Risto Rytty.

Diplomatic quarters here pointed to Foreign Minister Valno Tanner's assertion today that Helsinki had decided against appealing for the troops offered by France and Great Britain solely because Sweden and Norway had refused them transit.

Manion Deserted Party Declares Premier King

MONTREAL (CP)—Charging that Conservative Leader R. J. Manion had "deserted his party and wiped its name off the electoral map," Prime Minister Mackenzie King last night appealed to a Montreal audience for support at the polls.

He read a paragraph in French at the start of his speech expressing confidence that "the great support I received in this province in 1935 will be repeated again on March 26, 1940."

"Conservatives seem to be ashamed to fight under their own banner or show their own colors," the Prime Minister said, pointing to the official list of candidates nominated Monday in which Dr. Manion and all his candidates are under the "National Government" heading.

"There used to be a Social Credit party, but it became ashamed of itself and now it is the New Democracy," he said.

In deserting the party which chose him its leader in 1938, "is Dr. Manion not doing in this election exactly what Mr. Stevens did in the election of 1935?" Mr. King asked.

(Mr. King referred to Hon. H. H. Stevens, who left the Conservative ministry in 1934, organized the Reconstruction Party and was the only one of its candidates to be elected, and who is now Dr. Manion's colleague in the National Government movement.)

Reviewing the long service of the Quebec federal ministers, Mr. King observed that each had been in Parliament more than 20 years.

"You have the choice of keeping in power these men who have been conducting public affairs for a large number of years or putting in their places others—I wish I could tell you who but I cannot and don't know anybody who can."

"What is the platform of the National Government party? When was it laid down? There has been no meeting of the party," he said. "There has been no meeting of its candidates."

"With war raging on the continent of Asia in Europe, and spreading elsewhere, and no one knowing how close it may come to our shores, there was never a time when people should be so careful to whom they entrust the responsibility of government."

Mr. King defended his action in dissolving Parliament on January 25 last, the day it opened for the sixth session. It was not only his right but his duty as Prime Minister to act as he had.

It was possible to extend the life of Parliament because of the war, as was done under Prime Minister Sir Robert Borden in 1916. "But, I say they had no right to do it then, and Parliament itself took that stand when the government tried to extend Parliament another year in 1917."

Quebec province had been represented at Ottawa in connection with war contracts and the province had been "well treated" by the King government, said the speaker.

More than 1,000 persons were engaged here now at the arsenal and "probably soon 4,000 or 5,000 will be employed."

Premier Adélard Godbout, who spoke after the Postmaster-General, said "Canada had been at war six months and never had there been such harmony. That was because the government at Ottawa was Liberal."

"Quebec and the rest of Canada today stood united, in contrast to 1917, Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, said.

"Canada is a nation," he told the gathering. "We don't want to lose the liberty threatened by dictators trying to control the occidental world."

Referring to the United States election called by Lincoln during the Civil War, Mr. King said that demonstrated, as the present election would demonstrate, that "in time of war as well as in times of peace we can maintain our free institutions of democracy and make them work for expression of the people's will."

It had been charged he had "scuttled" Parliament, Mr. King said. "Those who say that we are the people who were prepared to scuttle the people—the entire nation—and take away from them the right to say who should administer their affairs."

"That sort of thing is the beginning of the end of freedom."

COULD NOT UNITE

The Prime Minister said he did not believe it would be possible for the Conservative leader, who was proposing a National government, to form a united and harmonious administration.

"I ask you to study the statements Dr. Manion and his colleagues have been making about me and my colleagues, think of the things they have been saying about us, and ask yourselves if we could hope to sit down together and run the affairs of the

MUST KEEP LIBERTY, SAYS WOODSWORTH

EDMONTON (CP)—Wartime sacrifices by Canadians will be in vain unless civil liberties are preserved, security of the returned soldier guaranteed and the people's interests protected, J. S. Woodsworth, national leader of the C.C.F., said here last night in an address at an election meeting.

Emphasizing the need of preparing now for postwar adjustments, Mr. Woodsworth said there must be no victor dictating to the vanquished, at the peace conference and imperialism will have to be renounced so that all peoples and minorities will be given the right of self-expression.

He said he doubted whether wartime defence regulations were constitutional.

The present Defence of Canada regulations nullify Magna Charta, habeas corpus, the Bill of Rights and all the victories the common people have won in their fight for freedom.

"We condemn the Germans for submitting to the dictatorship of Hitler, but we are no better than the Germans if we submit to these regulations," he asserted.

Mr. Woodsworth declared that Prime Minister King "doesn't look like a dictator, doesn't talk like a dictator, but he is acting like one."

He said the two old-line parties represented the same idea and it would not be long until they came together. Then the C.C.F. would be the official opposition and the next step was for the C.C.F. to form a government.

Contending Canada's natural resources were being dissipated, he said it was "a sin to steal a pin but it is all right if you can get away with an oil well." The C.C.F. would make it more of a crime to exploit natural resources for private gain "than for a starving man to steal a loaf of bread."

No Partizanship In War Contracts

MOUNT FOREST, Ont. (CP)—Hon. W. D. Euler, federal Minister of Trade and Commerce, last night denied there had been any partizanship in the letting of war contracts and declared all contracts had been awarded under the direction of the War Supply Board, headed by Wallace Campbell, a Conservative.

The minister spoke at a meeting in the interests of Dr. J. K. Blair, Liberal candidate in Wellington North, and Walter Harris, candidate in Grey-Bruce.

Mr. Euler said he had no objection to the letting of war contracts and that he was not a partizan in the matter.

Howe Draws Manion's Fire

CORNWALL, Ont. (CP)—Transport Minister C. D. Howe was challenged here last night by Conservative Leader R. J. Manion to tell how much of Mr. Howe's "fortune" was made from cost-plus government contracts.

"Is it because of his experience with this kind of contract that Mr. Howe is now in charge of the War Supply Board?" Dr. Manion asked.

Speaking to 3,000 persons in the Cornwall Armory, the Conservative leader replied to a radio address by Mr. Howe directed at Dr. Manion's election efforts.

Dr. Manion charged the Transport Minister with uttering a "common garden variety of lie" when Mr. Howe said the government's determination to eliminate profiteering was not being well received by a small group associating themselves with the "so-called National Government Party" led by Dr. Manion.

Mr. Howe had said this group believed that by a campaign of misrepresentation it could seize office and "restore conditions prevailing during the last war."

"When Mr. Howe charges me with aligning myself with thugs and racketeers, it is a lie," Dr. Manion said.

QUESTION OF SUPPORT

"While we're discussing such people, with whom are the financial interests linked up in this election anyway?"

The "National Conservative Party" was not getting much support from financial groups because Dr. Manion had declared when he became leader he would work for the welfare of the common people.

"I said our system couldn't last unless we provided work and wages, said the speaker. "I believe in the system and I love the common people, too. Because I dared say that, the financial interests said: 'Whether he is leading us? I believe they are supporting the King government, because they are not supporting me.'"

He termed Mr. Howe's address "an even mixture of falsehood and abuse" and said he would speak of "little Mr. Rogers" (Defence Minister).

"Mr. Howe had accused him of 'trying to bribe the people with their own money' when Dr. Manion proposed abolishing the radio license fee, but Dr. Manion retorted that the government was 'taking the people's money and only bribing their own party.'"

Dr. Manion proposed more labor representatives on war boards and appointment of a labor man to administer the labor department. There was not now one industrialist in the whole cabinet. He felt more diversified representation in the cabinet was essential, of the 16 ministers, 10 were lawyers.

DREW BLAMES KING FOR LOST ORDERS

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (CP)—Large aircraft orders would have been placed by the Allies in Canada rather than in the United States but for the delay of Prime Minister Mackenzie King in adopting the British Commonwealth air-training plan, Lt. Col. George A. Drew, Ontario Conservative leader, charged last night in a federal election campaign address here.

He spoke in behalf of Hon. R. J. Manion, National Conservative leader and candidate in Fort William.

The Fort William plant of the Canadian Car and Foundry Company would have received orders for at least 600 planes, rather than 60, if the British offer had been accepted in 1937, he said. Instead, many orders had been placed in the United States.

ALLIES CHAPTER I.O.D.E.

SIDNEY—The March meeting of the Allies Chapter I.O.D.E. was held in St. Augustine's Hall at Deep Cove, the regent presiding. Members stood in silent tribute to the memory of the late Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada. A letter was read from the Brown Owl inviting members to a tea in the Guide Hall, Sidney, March 28. The regent was appointed delegate to attend the provincial annual meeting at the Empress Hotel, April 9, 10, 11. The regent reported attending the annual district Guide meeting, Mrs. King and Mrs. Newton were appointed delegates to attend the provincial annual Guide meeting at Duncan, March 29 and 30. The sum of $5 was voted towards badges for guides and brownies. The chapter was informed of a new guide company formed at Deep Cove.

The sum of $6 was voted to the blanket fund for the hotel in London. A donation of $3 was received for wool. The Solarium is to receive $20.

ROYAL OAK RED CROSS

At a committee meeting held recently at the home of Major Barton, plans were completed for the formation of a Red Cross unit to serve the Royal Oak district. Mr. F. A. Huck was elected to act as secretary pro tem. Miss Oldfield was appointed convener, with Mesdames Spicer and Barlow as assistant conveners. Mrs. Mitchell of Gordon Head explained the work of the Red Cross unit there. Owing to the large district this unit will cover, the representatives from Cordova Bay, Elk Lake, Prospect Lake and Royal Oak were asked to canvass their respective districts to secure workers, and as soon as these are obtained materials will be distributed and work commenced.

country with one mind," said Mr. King.

Mr. King said the list of 240 Liberal candidates nominated Monday should have included four described as Liberal Progressives who should be added to those endorsed by the government, making a total of 244.

Coldwell Speaks To French-Canadians

MONTREAL (CP)—M. J. Coldwell, national chairman of the C.C.F., was cheered enthusiastically last night when he told a political rally here he had assured western Canadians that French-Canadians would shed their last drop of blood in defence of Canadian soil were the country attacked or invaded.

Mr. Coldwell said that was the answer he had given when westerners had asked him, "what's the matter with the French-Canadian? Won't he fight?"

It was the C.C.F. chairman's third campaign speech in Montreal and he addressed a crowd of 400 in the predominantly French-Canadian east end. He spoke in English.

Mr. Coldwell had little faith in either the Liberal or Conservative parties and he belittled the promise by Prime Minister King that conscription would not be introduced by the present administration.

There was nothing to stop the Prime Minister from fulfilling his no-conscription promise as he had fulfilled his promise of last September not to call a general election until after another session of Parliament, said the speaker.

The government already had the power to impose compulsory military service because the Militia Act provided that every able-bodied man could be called out for service. Section 94 provided that troops called out under the act would be placed on active service either within Canada or without Canada for the defence of the country.

MANION MISLED, STATES POWER

QUEBEC (CP)—Hon. C. G. Power, Postmaster-General, told a political meeting last night a statement by Hon. R. J. Manion that he was "certain of victory" made "me think the Conservative leader must have information different to ours."

"In this election, perhaps for the first time since I entered politics, the issue is clear-cut," he said. "Dr. Manion has said it is to be decided whether the people want to keep the present government."

"Hon. Mackenzie King has taken up his defl and we are out to defend our administration."

Quebec province had been represented at Ottawa in connection with war contracts and the province had been "well treated" by the King government, said the speaker.

More than 1,000 persons were engaged here now at the arsenal and "probably soon 4,000 or 5,000 will be employed."

ROGERS PRAISES AIR FORCE WORK

STRATFORD, Ont. (CP)—Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of National Defence, paid tribute in an address at a federal election campaign meeting here last night to the part the Royal Canadian Air Force is playing in the Canadian war effort.

"I can say as far as the R.C.A.F. is concerned it has been building up a morale in this country and, if given the proper scope, will be enabled to make a brilliant record," he said.

In an address in support of F. G. Sanderson, Liberal candidate in Perth and deputy speaker of the last Parliament, Mr. Rogers called Canada's First Division "the best-clothed force that ever left this country for overseas."

Mining Student Awards Announced

WINNIPEG (CP)—Prizes for technical papers by students and others are announced in connection with the annual meeting here of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

The president's gold medal and prize of $25 go to R. J. A. Fricker, McGill University, for his paper on "Shaft Sinking Practice and Equipment at Hallnor Mines"; $25 to B. D. Cullity, McGill University, for his paper "Nickel and Its Alloys"; $25 to Henry M. Howard, University of Toronto, for a paper entitled "The Hard Rock Gold Mines Limited"; $25 to L. C. Brown, Queen's University, for his paper "Mine and Mill of Sturgeon River Gold Mines Limited"; $25 to K. E. Gustafson, McGill University, for his paper "Coal Mining Practice in Saskatchewan."

The Randolph Bruce medal, donated by the Hon. R. Randolph Bruce, one-time Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, was awarded to Marcel Leon Pochon, superintendent of the Port Hope refinery of Eldorado Gold Mines Limited, for distinguished achievement in production of radium and uranium from ores mined at Great Bear Lake, N.W.T.

Annual accident prevention prizes, donated by Mine Safety Appliances Co. Limited, were awarded this year for papers on accident prevention in the mining and metallurgical industries, to N. D. Bothwell of the Britannia Mining and Smelting Company, and two equal second prizes to M. R. MacPherson of Hard Rock Gold Mines Limited and C. E. McKnight of Lake Shore Mines Limited.

Henry Ford's Grandson Engaged to Wed

NEW YORK (AP)—The engagement of Miss Anne McDonnell to Henry Ford II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford of Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich., was announced last night.

No date for the wedding has been set.

Miss McDonnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Francis McDonnell, who maintain residences here and at Southampton, Long Island, was graduated from the Convent of the Sacred Heart and later studied at the Grottaferrata School at Sienna, Italy.

Ford is a grandson of Henry Ford, a graduate of Hotchkiss School, he is a senior at Yale and manager of the crew.

BROOKE-POPHAM RETURNS TO BRITAIN

OTTAWA (CP)—Air Chief Marshal Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, who has spent the last four months in Canada as air liaison officer in chief of the United Kingdom air liaison mission, will return to England before the end of this month to assume another post "of great responsibility," according to a National Defence Department announcement.

Air Vice-Marshal L. D. D. Kean, for three years senior air staff officer in the training command, with headquarters in Shropshire, and for the last three months in command of a training group in Britain, succeeds Sir Robert as chief air liaison officer in Canada.

Sir Robert said his successor also will serve as the connecting link between the chief of the air staff of the Royal Canadian Air Force, who is responsible for the execution of the Canadian portion of the joint air training plan, and the British Air Ministry.

Says Hitler Failing

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Elsa von Starhemberg, wife of Prince Ernst von Starhemberg of Austria, was en route to Cleveland today to take residence with an uncle until she obtains a divorce.

The Princess, traveling from Mexico, said she would apply for a decree in Ohio and that Von Starhemberg would continue living in Paris, his present home.

"Hitler's luck has turned," she said. "The German people don't want war and they are making their wants known more each day."

Finland's Borders Redrawn

TOTALITARISM HAS SCORED ANOTHER victory by the sheer weight of numerical superiority and a vast preponderance of mechanized equipment. The courage and soul of Finland were not enough to ward off any longer the might of her great and powerful neighbor. Soviet Russia has redrawn the boundaries to suit her own convenience and to strengthen her position in the area of her influence. What transpired yesterday causes no particular surprise. Without very substantial assistance from outside sources, both in men and in all mechanical paraphernalia of war, it was evident from the outset that it would be only a matter of time before the Helsinki government would have to agree to Moscow's terms for ending the conflict. It now remains for the historian at some later date to ransack his lexicon to find appropriate phrasing for a fitting tribute to a heroic nation and its indomitable people.

This is not the time to write a chapter of what might have been. Finland's future and the appreciable Russian territorial advance may or may not substantially rearrange the course of European events. This is a possibility, however, which at present is on the knees of the gods. Of importance is the fact that a bloody war which has cost many thousands of lives and the destruction of a vast amount of material treasure is now at an end. The price to be exacted from the Finnish people is much greater than represented by the demands to which their government refused to accede last November—a refusal dictated by national honor in the face of the most sinister threats and behavior on the part of the Moscow government. Nor was the decision to fight taken lightly. Finland expected her "fellow democracies" to go to her assistance; but, as Foreign Minister Tanner said this morning, she has "risen from ruin before" and "we have plenty of land left—there is the foundation for a new dawn for our nation in the future."

These are brave words in the moment of national disaster. But they typify the spirit and conduct of a people who have endured a bitter test in the terrible crucible of war at its worst. They are a challenge to all the nations that treasure the liberty of thought and action which democracy has bequeathed to them. They are a more direct challenge to the great Russian nation which has taken by force what it found impossible to obtain by cunning threat. And it is by the interpretation which the Soviet government shall put upon its material victory that the march of events in the coming days will be determined. Not that the most sympathetic and helpful procedure which Stalin may choose will recompense Finland for the grave loss of national sovereignty which she has sustained; but if there shall be a disposition on the part of those in control at Moscow to fashion this conquest in a manner that will at least restore some belief in the pledged word, the gloom which has settled on Finland today may be far from permanent.

Uppermost in the minds of most people, of course, is the dominant question: How will this ending of the Russo-Finnish war affect the major conflict between the British and French empires and Nazi Germany now that the Moscow government has obtained all it required to strengthen its position in its Baltic sphere of influence? There is nothing to indicate that Russia had any definite plans for further conquests in Scandinavia. She began her business of redrawing her political and strategic boundaries when she obtained vital concessions from Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia—without war. Certainly she applied the Nazi technique with effect, but authoritative observers testify that she is living up to her engagements to the satisfaction of the countries concerned. Finland, however, must remain for the time being a question mark in her own right. She at least appears in no danger of becoming another Poland. What, therefore, is to be the future relationship between Moscow and Berlin? Will Russia rest on her laurels and cool her ardor for the strange marriage made in Moscow last summer? Or will Europe witness some form of closer co-operation between Nazis and Bolsheviks in an effort to thaw the stalemate? The answers to these questions may be forthcoming before the world is much older.

It Will Survive Somehow

PERHAPS WE HAD BETTER TOUCH wood as we say that civilization will survive even the war which Fusherv Hitler has often promised the Allies. We are hopeful because we well recall what was being said almost every day during the dark periods of the last war. "Armageddon" had arrived; it meant the death knell for what we had chosen to call our comfortable and intellectual way of living; never again would the world as we knew it be the same.

So we thought a quarter of a century ago. The war then being fought between collections of nations was not only God's great battle of good against evil, but it was the war that would eliminate either all future wars or civilization itself. Here was the master war of them all, with new-fangled fighting machines that could wipe out cities as men swat flies and guns that could fire shells into towns 70 miles away. Civilization could not possibly survive that mighty onslaught. Yet for nearly 21 years after the 1918 Armistice, Armageddon was forgotten by all but classical scholars. Civilization, through some inexplicable miracle, had not disappeared. And wars had not been ended. Then last September 3 Canada woke up to the fact that war again had arrived. "Armageddon" promptly went back to its place in the lexicon of the pessimists. Surely this was the war that would really grind the earth into a mass of lifeless pulp. Columnists began to build their sermons around the resurrected word. On one day, two writers climaxed their messages with nearly identical sentences, both involving "Armageddon," and another columnist used the word so often that it began to sound like the title of a popular song. During the last week or so, however, we have not heard so much about civilization's doom. Even those who frown with superlative gloom perhaps are beginning to think that even when those nasty twins who rule the roosts at Berlin and Moscow have done their worst, sufficient of the world's reason and decency will be left to remove the blemishes of totalitarianism will have left.

As Anxious Adolf said in one recent utterance, Great Britain and France "will get the fight they asked for"—having asked for hope—and in that case the peoples of Allied countries will go through many anxious hours. But this war is different from the last conflict; its end does promise better things than came out of the last peace, because movements, intelligent and realistic, are taking shape on a universal scale that must produce something of practical value. It will be something that should prevent another Versailles and its aftermath.

Poverty of Argument

ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE RAGGEDNESS of the Conservative argument is reflected in a speech which Mr. M. A. MacPherson, Dr. Manion's candidate in the federal riding of Regina, delivered in Red Deer on Monday. This is how the Canadian Press reported him:

"Prime Minister Mackenzie King turned down the proposed air training scheme in Canada two years ago because 'he did not trust Britain.' Instead the Liberal government was willing to go ahead with the St. Lawrence waterways plans with the United States because 'he trusted the United States,' he said. Mr. King was not putting his whole effort in the war as should be done, Mr. MacPherson asserted.

"The people of Canada would not hesitate to support Bennett (Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, former Conservative Prime Minister) if the occasion should present itself," he said. "That is why we should support Manion as he was with Bennett and associated with him in his cabinet."

The foregoing observations are those of the man who two weeks ago exclaimed at Wingham, Ontario: "Hitler could tell from the laxity of the King government that Canada would be in no position to go to war. If anything, this helped to push his war effort. Prime Minister King's efforts in regard to war before September 1 consisted of a telegram which he sent Hitler asking him not to declare war—he didn't even receive an answer to it."

Serious comment on such sentiments as those to which Mr. MacPherson gave expression at Red Deer and Wingham would be superfluous. We venture to suggest nevertheless that the great majority of the Canadian people, who desire to be fair in these days of strain and uncertainty, will be inclined to resent such a palpable insult to their intelligence.

Concerning dictators who don't smoke, drink or flirt, Mark Twain had them tabbed: "A man may have no bad habits and have worse."

The Australian Prime Minister became so absorbed in watching cricket matches that he forgot about the war for almost a whole day. Instead of an expeditionary force, couldn't Britain send a corps of cricket instructors to Berlin?

Suppressing Others' Opinions

There are always some citizens, even in a country as free and enlightened as our own, who are ready to suppress opinions which differ from their own. They do this, or would like to do this, without regard to the ultimate hazard of their own position, for their own freedom rests ultimately upon the freedom of all their fellow citizens. No man can guarantee to himself and to his friends that he and they will always be in an effective position to maintain their own freedom. The day can always come when they will be themselves in the minority and because of their previous acts of repression, find themselves the suppressed. Safety lies in common guarantees mutually given and extended by all citizens for the preservation of the freedom of all.

Apart from this, to begin the suppression of a few ignorant, stupid, martyrdom-loving people is a course of extreme danger for any set of administrators. They may find no difficulty in shutting up an insignificant agitator or soap-box orator. But the law officer who does so runs the extreme and impracticable risk of making himself ridiculous by not pursuing a similar repressive course when citizens of Dominion importance conceivably take a similar line.

Imagine the case were this country suddenly to become in its politics like the Union of South Africa, where the leader of one of the national political parties has openly defended the course followed by Hitler. In Canada the obscure citizen who takes such a course in Ontario runs the immediate risk of being prosecuted by Mr. Conant. But would Mr. Conant take similar action against any Dominion political leader? It is not likely. It would be impossible.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

HISTORIAN

PROFESSOR TOYNBEE is perhaps the greatest historian of our day. He is not content merely to dig up the facts of our past—he puts them together into an integrated whole. Thus he has been able to reconstruct all the civilizations of antiquity and find out what made them work and what made them collapse in the end. He has disentangled 26 civilizations altogether, which shows you that ours is nothing very new and no doubt another professor some day will disentangle us.

Dr. Toynbee's study goes much deeper than the glib economic interpretations of our time. We live in an age of such materialism (when the sole object of man is to get a better living than is good for his immortal soul), that everything is interpreted according to the so-called laws of economics. The fall of Rome is attributed to the decay of Rome's economic structure where that was only a reflection of a decay in the mental structure. The attack on Finland is justified by many on the ground that it is an economic necessity in the establishment of the Workers' Holy State. Nay, the expression on Premier King's face, the way Mr. King's old dog, Pat, wags his tail, is interpreted by many Marxians in these regions as a sure indication that capitalism is dead.

Professor Toynbee goes deeper. He sees the class struggle as only the last evidence of a civilization's decline. The real decline, all unperceivable, has set in earlier when an intangible thing has died in the minds and hearts of the people—the will to go forward. Thus when a civilization is young and healthy a creative minority sets a standard of achievement and carries the majority along with it. Then, as the spark dies, the minority, unable to inspire, holds on by force of position. It is no longer creative but merely dominant. Society struggles to reject it or accepts it and sinks with it. And step by step the whole structure goes down hill.

PROFOUND SPECULATION

THIS IS ALL very interesting when applied to Rome and the last days of the Incas of Peru; but who will dare to apply it to us? That is the most interesting question of all. Is our civilization dying? Are the economic struggles of the last 50 years, the wars, upheavals, religious disillusionment, general paganism, materialism and unhappiness something more than the failure of capitalism? Do they go deeper than Marx ever suspected? Are they beyond the cure of Social Credit and Technocracy? Is Mr. Aberhart powerless to stem the tide? Can all the candidates in and around Victoria, can all the perfumes of Arabia wash out this spreading strain?

Nobody knows. The evidence in the affirmative, one must admit, is powerful. I do not refer so much to the ordinary criteria which are marked and yelled about at every political meeting. I do not mean the obvious breakdown of our economic system, its inability to feed people amid plenty; nor to the phenomenon of Hitler, which is a symptom only of a disease that long pre-dates this war. I do not mean the obvious junacy of our rulers for the last 20 years, the almost incredible blunders committed with elegance and dignity by gentlemen in top hats, through which they talked exclusively for two decades; nor the acquiescence of a still more stupid public, including especially myself.

SIGNS AND PORTENTS

NO, I MEAN something much deeper. I mean portents, surer signs of decay in a more vital region, in the very soul and mind of the people of our time—in ourselves, in you and me. These signs are everywhere. Indeed, I dare say the economic collapse is far less significant of our true state than the current women's styles, the parade of sex-appeal and glamour and purely animal antics which today pass for social life, entertainment and culture.

I dare say history will find something far more significant in all American flocking to see Clark Gable in "Gone With the Wind" than in the whole of "Das Kapital" and the entire second World War.

The fact that America at large is more interested in the adulteries of a popular actor than in the Christian religion may well strike the investigator of future generations as a more profound fact than any speech by any candidate in and around Victoria in this election. Such phenomena as Greta Garbo, Hedy Lamarr, Mae West may be more indicative of the fate of our civilization than the Russian Revolution and Conference of Versailles.

WE WON'T KNOW

THE SIGNS OF DECAY are everywhere apparent, but happily for you and me it will be a long process. It took several hundred years in Rome and they were a small people, with no machine guns. Our civilization should last some time yet and if it is dying the process will be little noted in a single lifetime and stoutly denied by everyone. You and I will never know the answer; will never know, perhaps, that we have witnessed the twilight of the old gods, the end of an era, the fall of another, greater Rome—will go through all our lives looking for the old world to return when the poor thing is lying still and cold in its coffin.

The interesting thing is what will take its place. Where is the new civilization arising, perhaps even now, before our eyes, all unnoticed? Ah, if we could only know that! Alas, no use. If it were pointed out to us we would never believe it because it is very likely has a different color of complexion from ours and speaks a different language and eats off its knife. Nasty thing, let us have nothing to do with it.

Red Victory

By the Associated Press

The Soviet dictated treaty ending the invasion of Finland after 105 blood-drenched days inflicts a costly peace on the Finns at a price far higher than was demanded before the red army invaded the republic's soil.

Last October 5, the Soviet leaders, flushed with the new hegemony which their implied threats had easily gained over the Baltic countries of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, demanded similar concessions from Finland.

Wary but diplomatic, the Finns tried to negotiate, and the Russian proposal finally boiled down to this:

Finland to be given a strip of Soviet Karelia on her eastern border in return for an undefined but evidently narrow strip of the Karelian Isthmus directly northwest of the Russian metropolis of Leningrad; lease or sale to Russia for a 3,000-man naval base of the Finnish peninsula of Hanko, commanding the entrance to the Gulf of Finland; cession to Russia of unspecified part of the Rybachy and Sredni Peninsulas, in the Arctic Ocean, exchange of some islands in the Gulf of Finland, and demilitarization of frontiers.

INVASION

The Finns refused, principally on account of Hanko and the proposed loss of their carefully built up Mannerheim Line of defenses on the Karelian Isthmus.

On November 30, the red army invaded Finland. Its planes bombed Helsinki and other Finnish cities. Just across the border, the Russians established at Terijoki a puppet "people's government of Finland" under Otto Kuusinen, Finnish Communist, who had been in exile for 20 years.

Declaring they would fight to the last man if need be, the plucky Finns appealed to the moribund League of Nations, which promptly expelled Soviet Russia and started co-ordinating aid to Finland from neutrals. Sweden, Britain, France and other countries furnished some war equipment; the United States and others gave nonmilitary aid.

WHILE WORLD LOOKED ON

While the world looked on in amazement and astonishment, Finland, one-fifth as populous

as Russia, fought the invading hosts to a standstill for months.

One of the coldest winters in half a century aided Finland's defence and Finnish soldiers killed and wounded the freezing Russians by the thousands.

Early in January the Finns announced two great victories: Annihilation on the eastern front of the Soviet 44th and 163rd Divisions of 15,000 and 18,000 men each. On February 19 they announced the slaughter of the Soviet 18th Division.

Finnish ski troops, with mobility offsetting the Soviet's sheer numbers, accomplished a modern miracle: Many military observers said the long-dreaded might of the Russian army had been proved a myth.

But slowly and ponderously, with utter disregard for casualties, the overwhelming Russian manpower finally penetrated the Mannerheim Line of defenses on the Karelian Isthmus. Swarms of Russian bombers, often 500 or more at a time, mercilessly devastated nearly every city and hamlet in Finland, although not a single important Finnish community yet had fallen into Russian hands.

Finally after three months of war had depleted Finland's manpower and supplies, peace negotiations were started behind the scenes. Neutral Sweden acted as an intermediary.

BEGGING MERCY

Just one week ago a Finnish delegation headed by Premier Rytty went to Moscow to discuss Russia's new offer—although Russian leaders had said they never would deal with any Finnish government other than the one they themselves had set up at Terijoki.

Today, while Britain and France were ready to rush 50,000 soldiers to defence of Finland if Finland asked help, the Finnish leaders chose a galling peace.

Less than 10 hours after the one-sided agreement was reached, the cannon of the Karelian Isthmus muttered their last, the drone of warplanes ended and bayonets were sheathed.

The Finns prepared to retreat to their new and straitened frontiers, leaving the fields of honor to the grotesque dead—and to Russia.

Peace Comes to Finland

By GUY RHOADES

A tired, sad man told citizens of Finland today the war with Russia had ended on Russia's terms and the citizens wept in the streets.

Vaino Tanner, foreign minister in a tottering Finnish government, announced in a radio address to his countrymen that the nations' four-man negotiating committee had accepted in Moscow peace terms harsher than the Russian demands Finland refused last November.

Finland surrendered, Tanner said, because it lacked weapons and because its government, beset by refusal of Norway and Sweden to permit transit of 50,000 British and French troops, had "no faith in the promises of others" to help.

TWO YEARS, FOUR TIMES

Thus, for the fourth time in two years, a small European nation bowed before a big aggressor. Other little neutrals, notably Switzerland, viewed the spectacle "with consternation," and wondered if and how soon it might be the turn of Norway and Sweden to suffer a similar fate.

Finland became the second victim of Russian aggression since the Soviet Union adopted Berlin methods of gaining its own way over small nations.

It joined the company of Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland, but its people had the satisfaction of knowing they had resisted three and one-half months—longer than the people of other countries attacked by totalitarianism.

RECALLING . . .

Two years ago Germany marched into Austria, and was not resisted. A year and a half ago a large section of Czechoslovakia was ceded to Germany. Half a year later Germany took the rest of the country. Last August Adolf Hitler's troops marched on Poland. Poland resisted ineffectually, and was attacked from the rear by Russia; newly become a "partner" of Germany. The two aggressors divided Poland.

As Germany demanded and got Czechoslovakia's fortified zone, so Russia demands and presumably will get the vital parts of Finland's famed Mannerheim Line in the south and enough other territory to make Finland little more than a dependency.

Finland must build a railway from Russia to Norway over which Russia proposes to transport goods, but could and may some day send troops in a march to the North Sea—a short airplane hop from Britain.

UNWELCOME NEIGHBOR

Prime Minister Chamberlain did not mention this proximity two days ago when he told the House of Commons that an offer of help had been made to Finland—but his government almost certainly has had in its mind the thought that Josef Stalin's air force is big enough and unscrupulous enough in its straitfacing of civilians to constitute an unwelcome neighbor at a visiting distance of about two hours' flying time.

Realization that Britain and France wanted to help certainly prompted Germany to work for peace in the north—peace which would keep the Allies out of territory from which they could probably cripple northern Germany, blockade her Baltic ports and bomb her Russian frontier.

FOR GERMANY

To Germany the peace undoubtedly seemed a diplomatic triumph, but unprejudiced observers were inclined to wonder how good a neighbor Russia might prove to the Reich in these dog-eat-dog days.

Meanwhile the Swedish press, optimistic about the peace until it happened, flew into an editorial fright and called for defensive unity of all Scandinavia, including Finland, a unity which most observers thought existed under the so-called Oslo Conference until the Russo-Finnish war showed it did not work.

Many foreign journals and some in Britain blamed the British and French governments for not offering Finland help before they did, but as Chamberlain pointed out, Premier Daladier said yesterday and Vaino Tanner reiterated today offers of help were no good when Finland's neighbors blocked the way.

Don't let Denture Breath and stains shout "False Teeth" KEEP PLATES LIKE NEW WITH POLIDENT

Plates and bridges soak up odors and impurities like a sponge! A thin dark scum collects on them. This scum holds germs and decay bacteria. It is so tough that ordinary brushing seldom removes it. And it gets into every tiny crevice where brushing can't even reach.

Almost always it results in "denture breath"—probably the most offensive of all breath odors. Yet there's a perfect way to clean and purify false teeth without brushing, acid or danger. It is Polident, a powder that dissolves away all scum, stains, tarnish and odor. Polident makes breath sweeter—plates or bridges look better, and feel better. Tens of thousands call Polident a blessing for comfort, convenience and hygiene.

National Pension Scheme Outlined

A shorter working life, not shorter working hours, is the answer to the unemployment problem of Canada, declared Alan Chambers, Liberal candidate in Nanaimo riding, when he strongly advocated at a meeting in St. Mark's Hall, Boleskine Road, last night, a program of national superannuation for all.

Mr. Chambers said that even during the war Canada should map out a social security plan that could be put into effect when peace came.

His proposal was the establishment of a superannuation fund by contributions from employees, employers and the state. The effect would be to remove older people from the labor market and leave the jobs for their sons and daughters.

It is unnatural for young people to be idle, just as it is unnatural for older people to have to work until they drop," the candidate said.

"And that's not Socialism; it's Liberalism."

It was not necessary for one to be a Socialist to see that there was opportunity for a far greater measure of social security possible in Canada, Mr. Chambers said.

"Confident in the knowledge that there is now on the statute books legislation that has already benefited a quarter of a million young Canadians I want to go to Ottawa to work with the government in the preparation of social security legislation so that, when the markets created by war conditions disappear, we will have the funds and machinery to make the necessary adjustments and the older people can go to a well-earned rest with a decent consuming power."

Mr. Chambers emphasized that the people could not win social security until they had first won national security. But the machinery for it must be prepared now ready to go into operation when peace came, just as the government's comprehensive war plan had swung into action when the conflict started.

The candidate said the present election, although regrettable in wartime, had been inevitable because Dr. Manion broke the political truce he had offered at the outbreak of war. The Prime Minister had submitted his government's record to the people so they could deal with those who played politics in time of war.

He claimed the government had a lengthy record of achievement with only the percentage of error that must be expected in many accomplishments.

Dr. Jack MacDougall of Vancouver, supporting Mr. Chambers, said the careful administration of Mackenzie King had brought Canada into war as a united nation. He regarded this as an outstanding achievement in tact and diplomacy.

Conservatives had nothing concrete to offer Canada, said Hon. Norman Whittaker, K.C., so had resorted to a campaign of personalities and abuse.

Democracy Depends On Christianity

"Christianity is the term used to define our present civilization. The word does not stand for vague sentimentality. It means the application of the principles of righteousness, justice and good all through life, and has reality behind it," said Rev. J. L. W. McLean, in an address on "Names and Labels" to members of the Kiwanis Club of Victoria at a luncheon held in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Mr. McLean told of the names given to places and individuals, stressing the fact that these names were originally given for a definite reason. Physical characteristics, human traits and topographical characteristics have much to do with the labeling of names to people and places.

"Do these names and labels express realities? Many are used with the assumption that reality lies behind them although this is not often the case. Labels and names can be twisted so that the original meaning becomes lost. We must use names honestly and thoughtfully," said the speaker.

"Democracy and Christianity" are names which should be treated thoughtfully, not as a hollow mockery. Democracy depends upon Christianity for its life. In present democracy there is no hope for good government or better government unless it comes from the people with Christian principles.

The speaker was thanked by G. H. Gowan, on behalf of the Kiwanians.

Barrell Spence was chairman.

Singer Calls Wife From City

Allan Jones, whose father and grandfather were Welsh miners, came to Victoria yesterday, delighted to be in a city about which he had heard so much, but, like any young husband, lonesome for his wife, Irene Hervey of the pictures.

He arrived on the afternoon boat from Vancouver and went to the Empress Hotel to rest and relax for his recital at the Royal Victoria Theatre this evening.

"If my wife was with me I would be strongly tempted to stay a few days on the island, but as she isn't here I'm going to fly to Hollywood on Thursday to join her—I haven't seen her since before Christmas, and it seems such a long time."

He is shown in the above picture in his suite at the Empress talking to his wife over long distance.

Star of radio, motion pictures, light opera and the concert platform, 32-year-old Allan Jones is a likeable, easy-mannered person who has none of the whims and temperamental notions associated with the old-time artist.

IN "VICTOR HERBERT"
Handsome, of course, with brown curly hair and a tiny moustache, he has sent the hearts of many women spinning as they have watched him act romantic parts in pictures, most recently in "The Great Victor Herbert."

And here's a secret—Allan Jones, like many a man with a more prosaic calling in life, doesn't always shave when he's on holiday. Yesterday he counted a holiday and when he came ashore from the steamer he apologized for his beard.

"I was just too lazy, that's all," he explained, as he puffed away at a trusty, well-worn pipe.

Music was born in Allan Jones, handed down to him from that Welsh grandfather and father.

Social and Personal 'Apascoe' Tea Proves Signal Success

Mrs. E. W. Hamer entered a dinner party at Government House last evening in compliment to Hon. J. C. Bowen, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, and Mrs. Bowen, who are spending a few days here from Edmonton. Covers were laid for 12 at a table centred with an exquisite arrangement of spring flowers. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor left on Monday night's boat for Vancouver to receive further medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillespie of Seattle have returned home after spending a few days in Victoria.

Mrs. Edward Searle of Victoria is visiting in Edmonton, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Whyte.

Mr. Arthur Charnell of Weyburn, Saskatchewan, is spending a couple of weeks in Victoria as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Funnell, North Quadra Street.

Judge P. S. Lampman and Mrs. Lampman of "Hillside," the Up-lands, who have been spending the winter months in California, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Mayhew, who has been visiting Mrs. Wakelin Sr. on Salt Spring Island for a month, returned to Victoria on Sunday and is now the guest of her daughter, Mrs. P. Wakelin, Camosun Street.

Mrs. Lisle Mackie returned to Victoria yesterday from southern California, where she has been spending the last five months, and has again taken up residence at the Empress Hotel.

Mrs. J. A. Turner, Beach Drive, and her sister, Mrs. Guy Pownall, Victoria Avenue, who are visiting in Santa Barbara, California, will return to Victoria next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. S. Hoskins of Toronto, who have been spending some time in Victoria as guests at the Empress Hotel, will leave tomorrow for the mainland on their return to their home in Ontario.

Miss Nan Hutton and Miss Aileen Tweed left this afternoon for Vancouver, where they will attend the Marion Anderson concert at the auditorium this evening.

Miss Louise Ina Layard, eldest daughter of Major and Mrs. A. R. Layard of Ganges, Salt Spring Island, will leave for Ecuador, South America, on April 9, where her marriage to Adrian Waring, son of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. B. G. Wolfe-Merton of Ganges Harbor, will take place in Guayaquil at the end of April.

As March 20 is the closing date for subscriptions for the farewell gift of furs to Lady Tweedsmuir from the women of Canada, anyone wishing to contribute is kindly requested to forward her donation to Mrs. E. W. Hamer at Government House as soon as possible. Mrs. Hamer is the honorary provincial vice-president of the fund.

"They take away BABY'S TEETHING FEVER"

So writes Mrs. B. of North Sydney. Then a Toronto mother says: "I used Baby's Own Tablets and the babies were always good. No cramps, pain or troubling sleep. In fact, I hardly knew they were cutting their teeth as they never were any trouble at night."

Baby's Own Tablets are quick, safe and effective, sweet-tasting and easy to take. Contain no opiates or stupefying drugs. Try Baby's Own Tablets not only for teething troubles but also for colic, constipation, upset stomach and other simple ailments of babyhood. 25 cents—Your money refunded if you are not satisfied.

The many friends of Mrs. David Watterson, St. James Street, will be glad to hear she is progressing favorably after a serious operation at the Royal Jubilee Hospital Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Henderson, who have been visiting in Hollywood, California, since leaving Victoria, have returned to Vancouver where they are in residence at Sylvia Court.

With decorations and music appropriate to the occasion, St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated with a special supper dance at the Empress Hotel on Saturday evening. Irish favorites and Irish tunes will pay homage to the patron saint of Erin, and a number of parties are being made up for the occasion. Reservations should be made as soon as possible.

Mrs. E. Cummins, North Road, entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon on the occasion of the fifth birthday of her son, Bobby. Refreshments were served from a table centred with the birthday cake, which was surrounded with bowls of violets and primroses. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mesdames R. Mackie and J. Hume. The invited guests included: Eleanor and Frank Lapp, Bobby and Barry Stovel, Marie and Doreen Cummins, Patsy and Lillian Hume, Joan Smithson, Ross Webb, Leon Lindores, Mesdames J. Hume, R. Mackie, H. K. Hume, J. Smithson, W. Webb, J. Stovel, R. Lapp and H. Fink.

Miss Edith Whittaker, who is to be married shortly to Mr. Stanley A. Britt, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower held by Miss Margaret Heyworth, 2544 Government Street, last evening. Upon her arrival, the bride-to-be was given a corsage bouquet, and then little Yvonne Stockley presented her with a basket prettily decorated with yellow and white crepe paper, which contained the gifts. Games were enjoyed during the evening, and later a buffet supper was served. Mrs. S. Heyworth presided at the supper table, which was covered with a hand-embroidered daffodil cloth and centred with an attractive arrangement of daffodils and white carnations in a crystal vase to carry out the color scheme of yellow and white. The guests were Mesdames J. Whittaker, A. M. Britt, S. Heyworth, M. Stockley, C. Matte, L. Green, F. Driskoll, A. Graigle, K. Waterman and Misses Irene Davies, Evelyn Fishlock, Vivian Harknett, Alberta White, Eleanor Vantrigh, Helen Wheeler, Margaret Harknett, Yvonne Stockley and Marjorie White.

To mark the eighth birthday of her twin daughters, Betty and Joan, Mrs. D. W. Anderson entertained at a children's party yesterday afternoon at her home, 3211 Irma Street. The dining-room was gay with yellow streamers and brightly-colored balloons. Games were played and a sit-down supper was served, the table being centred with a silver basket of daffodils and lighted by yellow candles. Each place was marked with an Easter bunny basket filled with candy, and at either end of the table was a candle-lit birthday cake. A treasure hunt was held after tea, the winners being Joy Wilkinson and Lorna Hawthornthwaite. The guests were Mesdames G. S. Eden, E. R. Heal, W. Bryson, J. C. Dowds, H. Taylor, and Joy Wilkinson, Lorna Hawthornthwaite, Lorna and Frances Farmer, Betty Bryson, Beryl Hancock, Doreen Parker, Lorna and Donnie Eden, Rene Heal, Billy Brinkman, Alan Anderson and Sheila Cousins.

Airline Official To Address Club

Miss Mary Musson, who is in charge of the women's traffic department of Trans-Canada Airlines and has flown 50,000 miles, will speak at the St. Patrick's social evening which the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club will hold in their rooms on March 19.

This was announced at the dinner meeting held last night in the Hotel Douglas, Mrs. Harold Lord, the president, in the chair. Miss Minnie Beveridge gave an interesting address on "The Romance of the Hat," in which she traced the development of hats since early times, pointing out the effect of political changes upon styles of millinery since the time of Charles I. She described in detail the manufacture of fur felt and straw hats, the majority of the latter coming from Italy, the south of France, China and the United States. The United States leads the world in hat machinery, she said. Contrary to general belief, Panama hats were not woven under water. Miss Beveridge stated, and the natives who weave Panama hats, which are sold for $5 to $10, spend a week or 10 days in making them.

Miss Mabel Cameron moved a vote of thanks to the speaker and to Miss Jessie Smith and Miss Bessie Crowther, who played two piano duets, "The March" from Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody" and "Serenade" (Schubert). A standing vote of sympathy was extended to Miss Parsell and Mrs. Maynard in their bereavements.

The next business meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 27. A contribution from the club was voted towards the fund for a gift of furs for Lady Tweedsmuir.

Daughters of England, Lodge Primrose No. 32, will hold a home cooking stall at Spencer's Satur-

ANDERSON-BOULTER

At "Lynwood," Davida Avenue, the home of the bride's parents, Rev. A. E. Whitehouse united in marriage Winifred Joan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Boulter, Davida Avenue, and Mr. Harold Gordon Anderson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Anderson, 739 Burke Street, at a pretty ceremony last night at 8.30.

The reception rooms were arranged with spring flowers, the ceremony being performed before the fireplace, which was banked with ferns, flanked by standard baskets of forsythia, almond blossom and bridal wreath.

Entering the room with her father, to the strains of the "Lohengrin" Bridal Chorus played by Miss Marjorie Cooper, the bride looked charming in her form-fitting frock of "Aloha" blue crepe, a small black straw hat trimmed with blue flowers and a shoulder-length veil, black accessories and a corsage bouquet of gardenias and rosebuds. Miss Irene Clarke was bridesmaid in a dusky rose princess frock, with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and forget-me-nots, a navy blue pillbox straw hat trimmed with powder blue ribbon and flowers, and navy accessories. Mr. William Van Druten, R.C.A., was best man.

Mrs. Boulter received the guests in a Queen's blue gown with a matching coat and a blue picture hat trimmed with lavender flowers and a blue veil, and the bridegroom's mother wore a fuchsia-ensemble, their corsage bouquets being violets and lily of the valley and pink and white carnations, respectively.

A cutwork cloth covered the supper table, which was lighted with ivory tapers in silver candelabra and decorated with vases of freesias. In the centre stood the bride's cake, surmounted by a vase of Talisman rosebuds, and this was cut after the toast to the bride had been proposed by Mr. G. E. Grist and to the groom by Mr. A. Coombs. Assisting in serving were the Misses Elsie Anderson, Josephine Cook, Mary Coleman, Dorothy Gill, Marjorie Cooper and Phyllis Smart.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will return to Victoria to live after a honeymoon on the mainland, for which the bride donned a coat of Air Force blue trimmed with grey squirrel over her bridal outfit.

ELLIOTT-KIRBY

A quiet wedding was solemnized Monday, March 11, at 2 p.m. at St. Helen's Church, West Point Grey, Vancouver, between Violet Louise, daughter of Mrs. F. M. Kirby, 1014 West 11th, Vancouver, formerly of Victoria, and the late Alfred C. Kirby, to James Richard Elliott, younger son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Elliott of Victoria. Rev. H. R. Trumppour was the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a smart tailored suit of steel blue, with grey hat, and harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and white heather. Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Iris V. Kirby, the groom being supported by his brother, Mr. Reginald Elliott of Vancouver.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kirby, 4390 West 11th.

Later the bridal couple left by motor for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend three weeks' honeymoon. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will reside in Victoria, where the groom is on the staff of the Bank of Montreal.

CARR-FRY

The marriage of Gladys Ruth Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Fry, North Battleford, Sask., to Mr. Norman Carr, R.C.N., only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carr, Gordon Head, took place on Monday at St. Luke's Church, with Rev. Frederic Pike officiating.

A benefit concert for the Solarium will be held in Royal Oak Hall, under the auspices of the Institute, on March 15 at 8 p.m. Pupils of Betti Clair with other artists, and moving pictures, will provide a good program.

Speedster of the pack was year-old Gail Swanson of Forest Hills, L.I., who "flashed" over the line first.

Bridge to Aid X-Ray Fund for China

In support of its campaign to send a portable X-ray and generator to northwest China, the Committee for Medical Aid for China is planning a bridge, to be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 2, at St. Mary's Hall, Yale Street, Oak Bay. Mah Jong and Chinese checkers may also be played. Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. M. Betts, convener, at E2484. Miss Jane Hall will have charge of refreshments.

In the meantime, the committee plans the sale of a valuable book presented by Mme. Sun Yat-Sen, an autographed copy of "Red Star Over China," given to her by the author and further inscribed by Mme. Sun to the Canadian people. Inquiries may be made at the offices of the Committee for Medical Aid for China, 617 Broughton Street. The office is open afternoons from 2 to 5 and Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cameron, Moss Street, who left recently for an extended trip east and south, are at present in Miami, Florida, and will be in Havana at the end of the month for a few days before leaving for Washington, D.C., en route south.

Mr. A. E. Alexander, president of Foster's Fur Store (Victoria) Limited, who is on an extended tour of the continent by air, arrived in New York today, leaving Palm Springs and flying via Salt Lake City, Chicago and Toronto; He will visit Montreal and return to Victoria via the Trans-Canada Airways, arriving here around March 20.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stover and their son, Glenn, returned by plane yesterday from Vancouver where they attended the Thomasson-Frizzell wedding. Mrs. Stover was matron of honor when her sister, Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Frizzell, became the Bride of Gilbert Thomasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Thomasson at Holy Trinity Church on Monday evening. The Misses Marie Van Rys and Jean Cruikshanks were bridesmaids. They wore floral gowns of taffeta with net mitts and heart-shaped hats, the first in rose with Laddie carnations and the two in white with tamaris and orchid trim and iris bouquets.

Housewives League to Hear Ottawa Speaker

The Victoria District Branch of the Housewives' League of British Columbia meet at the Business and Professional Women's Clubrooms, 301 Union Building, Friday afternoon at 2.30.

Miss Muriel Cameron, home economist of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, who will be the guest speaker, has chosen "Food Facts for Women" as the subject of her address, which will include food nutrition and marketing, and should prove not only interesting but valuable to housewives. All women interested in raising living standards, for which purpose the Housewives' League of B.C. is organized, will be welcomed.

Tillikum School P.T.A. held its monthly meeting in the school on Monday evening. Court whist was played after the meeting, there being nine tables. The prize winners were: First, Mrs. Sommerville and Mr. Michell; consolation, Mr. W. Clare. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

St. Mark's W.A. met on Tuesday afternoon, when the usual routine reports were read. Final arrangements were made for the St. Patrick's concert to be held on Friday evening, for which a good program has been planned. Rev. J. R. Fife of the Cathedral staff was guest speaker, taking for his subject "Conditions in Northern Saskatchewan."

The Second Mile Club met at the home of Mrs. Porter, 2652 Cook Street. Mrs. Waller, vice-president, in the chair. It was decided to hold a rummage sale soon. Two new members were welcomed to the club. Miss Nan Eaton gave an interesting talk on her trip through Japan last summer. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Middleton, McGill, Pearce and Pearmain.

The Women's Guild of the Consumers' Co-operative Store, Government Street, held a successful court whist drive at the home of Mrs. Thornberry, 2816 Dewdney Avenue, who very kindly acted as hostess. Eight tables were occupied. The following won prizes: Mrs. J. P. Wilson, first; Mrs. Green, second; Mr. G. Cooley, consolation. The proceeds will be placed in the educational fund. The next entertainment will be held at the home of Mrs. Milton, Cranleigh House School, Cadboro Bay Road, on April 6.

"I have always felt," said Sir Ernest MacMillan, "that examinations in music are of value only in proportion to the musical status of the examiners and of the examining body which they represent."

The new examination system will tend to eliminate confusion and duplication," said Mr. Hampshire of the Hamilton Conservatory. "We believe the Toronto Conservatory of Music examination systems represent the best basis for a completely national examination system and that our association with them is a step in the right direction."

NOTHING SHORT OF MAGIC!

It's nothing short of magic what the New Method can do for those garments in the closet—and it's a miracle, too, that so much can be done to ENTIRELY RENOVATE a Dress, Suit or Coat for a single dollar.

And "Renovize" isn't just a fancy name for ordinary cleaning. It's cleaning far beyond the ordinary meaning of the word. But it's also reshaping, refinishing, restoring color, reviving the very fabrics by a series of scientific PROTECTIVE processes that would amaze and delight the heart of any woman.

If you're a little skeptical, Madam, just let's try one garment—we won't have to urge you again!

SEE R.C.A.F. SCHOOL

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (CP) — Royal Canadian Air Force officers escorted a group of newspaper men through the training centre near here. The visit yesterday was the final act in the public airing of the incident of February 10, described as a "walkout" by Commissioner William Stringer of the Ontario Provincial Police in his official report following an investigation Tuesday.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn, whose controversy with Defence Minister Norman Rogers over the alleged walkout led to the inquiry, was invited to inspect the school but declined.

Airmen in training to serve as tradesmen and mechanics in the operation of the British Commonwealth air training plan were at work in the shops, some learning elementary carpentry, metal work, fabric work and rigging and fitting of aircraft.

The school occupies a giant, modernistic Ontario hospital building, newly erected at a cost of $7,000,000 and turned over to the National Defence Department by the Ontario government. The various buildings are connected by miles of underground corridors.

Saanich Council Councillor and Reeve Clash

"This is nothing but a lot of red tape. You're a red. You're as red as red can be," shouted Reeve A. G. Lambick at Councillor Leslie H. Passmore, Ward Seven, in the heat of an argument over the appointment of a police constable during a hectic debate at last night's meeting of the Saanich Council.

The reeve's charge climaxed another session of the debate which has been one of the principal issues of Saanich Council meetings for the last six weeks—the appointment of an officer without calling for applications and throwing the position open to anyone interested, particularly residents of the municipality.

Several weeks ago the matter was first raised at a joint meeting of the council and police commission when Councillor Passmore asked personal questions concerning the newly appointed officer—how long he had been in Saanich, whether he was a ratepayer and whether he had any previous police experience.

At that time Commissioner G. Stanley Eden challenged him to frame the question in the form of a resolution and have it passed by the council and he would receive his answer from the police commission.

Last night the council received from the commission a reply which, in effect, evaded answering the question, saying the commission was a body of responsible men, duly elected by the people and responsible for its actions. It added, however, that if any member of the council desired an explanation of the appointment he would receive it by attending the next meeting of the police commission.

"PASSING THE BUCK"

After the commission's letter was read, Councillor E. C. Warren, Ward Two, commented, "I am sorry to hear this answer. The commission was here and had a chance to answer questions but Councillor Passmore was asked to put his questions in the form of a resolution. He did this and now the questions are unanswered. It sounds to me like a little bit of passing the buck on the part of the police commission."

"It's a bunch of 'Sommeryot,'" hotly replied the reeve. "The man's there and he's going to stay there as far as this police commission is concerned. And that is that."

"Just a minute, Mr. Reeve," interrupted Councillor Passmore. "I have many ratepayers who are behind me in this and they have asked me to see this through and I'm going to see it through. I'll certainly be at the next meeting."

"It's nothing but a lot of red tape. You're red. You're as red as red can be," shouted the reeve back at Councillor Passmore, pounding the table with his fist.

this, reeve?" asked Councillor L. C. Hagan, Ward Six.

"The man has proved himself to the commission and to the public and that's all there is to it," was Reeve Lambick's hot retort.

"All that I want to know is whether the man was a resident of the municipality and how long he has been one and whether he is a ratepayer," said Councillor Passmore.

"The whole thing is too small for anything," started the reeve.

"In other words the commission is refusing to answer a legitimate question," said Councillor Passmore.

"We're pleased we did it. I'd do it again tomorrow," replied the reeve.

"I think this is a little out of order. It's a little off the track," observed Councillor J. R. Scoby, Ward Three.

"We're all off the track," remarked Reeve Lambick.

"Here, Mr. Reeve, we're not all off the track," interjected Councillor George Austin, Ward Four.

"But why pick on the reeve," was the reeve's rejoinder, his voice rising again.

"We're not picking on the reeve. It was a legitimate resolution," replied Councillor Austin.

"It was not. It wasn't fair to ask the commission about matters of police policy at that meeting," was Reeve Lambick's reply.

"It's the procedure I'm protesting against," interjected Councillor Warren.

NO COMPLAINTS—ONLY PRAISE
Councillor Passmore. "Will you say, Mr. Reeve, that none of the School Budget One Mill Higher

An increase of one mill in the current tax rate was represented in school board estimates approved by the Saanich Council last night.

The estimates show the board this year will require $5,863 more from municipal revenue than last year, an increase due to provision being made for institution of instruction in industrial arts as required by the provincial curriculum and because of a $2,500 loss in revenue from the Craigflower School area brought about by the closing of the historic school last year.

While the school estimates

police commission has received any complaint about this man?"

Reeve Lambick. "Absolutely. None whatever. Only praise."

Councillor Passmore. "That's amazing." The councillor then went on to explain he knew some commissioners had received complaints about the "manner in which this man operates."

"Do you want to go into this further?" asked the reeve of the councillors.

"The only thing I can say is that I am notified when the next commission meeting will be held," said Councillor Passmore.

"Gladly, we'll notify the whole council," said the reeve.

This remark concluded the debate as it was agreed that all members of the council should be notified when the commission would hold its next meeting.

show a one-mill increase it does not follow the tax levy will be increased accordingly, as this amount may be absorbed in economies effected in the council's budget. One mill on the current assessment raises about $5,000.

This year the board estimates its total requirements at $97,027, as compared with $91,163 required last year.

The extra amount consists of $3,049 for industrial arts equipment, $2,500 loss in Craigflower revenue and $314 increase in sundry expenditures.

Councillor E. C. Warren, Ward Two, also a school trustee, explained the extra money was required by provision of the provincial curriculum. Reeve Lambick noted it would have been forced on the school board sooner or later.

The establishment of industrial arts is a preliminary step towards creation of a junior high school system.

Funeral Rites For C.A.S.F. Officer

ALDRSHOT (CP)—The body of Lieut. H. R. Corey of the Carleton and York Regiment, whose military service was cut short by an accident on the rifle range, started the journey home from this army area last night on a gun carrier that rumbled slowly to the beat of muffled drums.

The 27-year-old subaltern from Woodstock, N.B., was fatally injured by the discharge of a cartridge that jammed in a rifle in the hands of another man. He was given a military funeral service at St. Andrew's Garrison Church as a final tribute from

Urge Tax Free Farmers' Dogs

Possibility of granting free licenses for dogs owned by farmers was discussed by the Saanich Council last night, but no action was taken.

The question arose when the relief officer reported some relief recipients had applied for free dog licenses.

Councillor L. C. Hagan, Ward Six, said he thought some provision should be made for owners of larger farms, many of whom regarded dogs as a necessity. It was pointed out an amendment to the Municipal Act would be required to grant free licenses.

It was suggested the situation could be overcome by making refunds of licenses after considering each case on its individual merits.

Mrs. K. Faulkner and several others petitioned against alleged nauseating odors, intolerable noise, fire hazards and unsightliness of the provincial government yard on Burnside Road in the men he had accompanied overseas.

Col. G. R. Turner, general staff officer, first grade, represented Major-General A. G. L. McNaughton, commander of the Canadian Active Service Force.

Capt. W. T. R. Flemington, former headmaster of Mount Allison Academy, Sackville, N.B., conducted the service for this first commissioned officer of the First Division to die overseas.

Ward Seven and copy of their complaint was ordered forwarded to the provincial authorities.

The council tabled a request from Victoria City for the pooling of monthly building figures for distribution to United States and Canadian centres for publication in regular business bulletins. The council desired to wait and see what other municipalities did with the request after Councillor E. C. Warren, Ward Two, had asked why the matter was not handled through the inter-municipal committee.

Members of the council accepted the invitation of the Ministerial Association to attend the sunrise service at 7.30 a.m. Easter Sunday.

The council once again refused the Publicity Bureau request for a $500 grant. No comment was made by the council after reading of the bureau letter which foresaw a heavy tourist trade in the Pacific Northwest this summer in which Saanich would share.

A man who protested payment of the 70 cents per diem charge by Saanich for his wife, who was a patient in the Jubilee Hospital, wrote to the council about it. His wife's bill was fully paid by him, he said, and he would see no reason why the taxpayers should have to contribute. The council's reply informed him the payment was a statutory requirement over which it had no control.

A recommendation from the police commission that a police car be turned over to the health department and a highway patrol be purchased for the police department was referred to the health and morals committee.

Bach's Passion
Well Presented

By M. A.

Once again last night at Christ Church Cathedral the Victoria Choral and Orchestral Union, rapidly becoming one of Victoria's most polished musical organizations, presented the magnificent Passion of Our Lord, according to St. John, to the music of Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750).

The inspiring words and the ever-wonderful music, with its depths of feeling, both sorrow and joy, again captivated the audience of music lovers, who felt that perhaps both choir and orchestra had improved on their last year's presentation. It is to be regretted the congregation was not much larger, but those that attended had a thoroughly delightful evening and left the Cathedral feeling a little richer in spirit than when they entered.

The work is not an easy one; it takes many hours of long and arduous practice on the part of singers and musicians. Stanley Bulley, Cathedral organist and choirmaster, is to be congratulated on the way he handled both, and indeed, they are to be congratulated, too, for without their co-operation the conductor would have been unable to do much. There were times when the choir were not sure of themselves individually; steady work is the only way in which this can be corrected.

On the whole, however, the choir was nicely balanced, the various parts being held in suitable control, with true blending and shading. If some of the attacks were not all they should have been, there were some really fine and stirring finales.

SOLO PARTS

James Oakman, tenor, did extremely well with the role of the Evangelist. His is a voice of pure quality, well suited to the Cathedral. Beautifully interpreted by Phillip Watts, of Vancouver were the words of Christ. He showed so distinctly that he had had long training in the works of Bach. His fine bass, of wide range, was happily used.

The very well trained, sweet voices of the boys' choir lent admirable support to the chorus and also were heard in the soprano airs. Outstandingly lovely was "I Follow in Gladness to Meet Thee" with its lilting, joyful-organ accompaniment.

The orchestra, under its leader, Selma Reyes, well-known violin soloist, shows steady improvement and proves that regular rehearsals together is bound to produce none but pleasing results. At the organ was Edgar Holloway, whose artistry and musicianship did so much for the entire performance.

Business organization should not be forgotten. Among those working to make the evening so enjoyable being W. H. Wilson, president of the Union; Miss Kitty Lake, secretary; J. H. Hinton, treasurer; Capt. W. Ord, Miss J. F. Wilkinson and George Phillips, secretary of the recitals committee.

Much appreciated by the congregation were copies of the Book of Words, presented with the compliments of Mrs. Walter C. Nichol.

As the congregation entered and left the Cathedral, muffled peals were rung from the Bishop Schofield Memorial Tower chiming.

The Union will rest from now until early in September when it will commence work on Handel's "Messiah," for presentation in December.

Folio Thieves Hunted

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—

Investigation of the theft last month of a $30,000 first folio of Shakespeare belonging to the Williams College library has turned to England and agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been called into the case. State Detective John J. Horgan said he had proof that three men were involved in the theft, but he gave no indication as to why search for the valuable volume had turned to Britain.

New High School
Song Is Presented

The Boys' Glee Club of Victoria High School sang the peppy new school song for its students at assembly yesterday morning when the presentation of the prize to Teddy Shadbolt and Al Westlake, composers, was made. The contest for the new school song was sponsored by the bi-monthly school paper, the Camorunet, and the song was not presented to the students until it was sung by the Glee Club at a recent co-ed dance.

On the platform for the presentation were Bob Atkins and Miss Marian Jones, members of the editorial staff of the Camorunet. The prize of $2 was presented to the composers by Miss Jones, after which the Glee Club sang the piece with variations. Words for the song were by Al Westlake and it was set to music by the school's favorite pianist, Ted Shadbolt. The new song immediately found favor with the students as one could hear students humming it in the corridors throughout the day.

The words are:
"Come, get together, in every kind of way,
Put your shoulder to the wheel in work or play
Don't be discouraged, keep your head up high
We'll go down in history as the pride of old Vic High."

JURY DISAGREES
IN VANCE TRIAL

Trial of William Gordon Vance, charged with manslaughter, as a result of the death of Loy Hoy, Chinese pushcart peddler fatally injured when struck by Vance's car on the evening of December 2, ended in a jury disagreement last night. The jury returned after an hour and 35 minutes and reported its members unable to agree on a verdict. The panel was dismissed and a new trial ordered by Chief Justice Morrison.

Addresses by M. B. Jackson, K.C., crown prosecutor, and E. H. M. Foot, defence counsel, preceded the charge by the trial judge.

The court fixed Monday next for the opening of the trial of Helen A. "Nellie" Anderson on a murder charge arising out of the death of Chiyeko Nagano at Duncan, December 1.

The Strawberry Vale Red Cross unit will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2 at the home of Mrs. H. Hault, Wellington Road.

WAKE UP YOUR
LIVER BILE—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, numb and the world looks lousy.

A more honest movement doesn't always get the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of a thousand but have no cathartic or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. Be.

Claims Leaves Will Lose Soldiers' Votes

Charge that many soldiers will be deprived of their votes in the federal election because of the arrangement of their leaves was made by Frank S. Cunliffe, Conservative candidate in Nanaimo riding, at a meeting last night in Deep Cove.

HOW TO OVERCOME ITCHING PILES

If you are annoyed with itching piles on rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from Modern Pharmacy and Cunningham Drug Store—or any druggist—a package of Hemoid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemoid is highly recommended, is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

Mr. Cunliffe said the active service force regulations, which permit voting for the armed forces between March 16 and 21, had been evaded by the granting of leaves from March 10 to 24.

Men on leave would be at their homes when the vote was taken in their stations and would be back at their stations when the civilian vote was taken, he said.

"Obviously the government is afraid of their opinions and their votes," Mr. Cunliffe declared. "Who could best judge of the government's conduct of our war effort than the soldiers who have it before them every day. How long will people stand for this type of political trickery?"

Thomas Irvine of Vancouver, who supported Mr. Cunliffe, discussed unemployment and unemployment insurance. The chairman was George T. Mitchell.

Revellers' Dance

Revellers' Canadian Rugby Football Club will hold a dance at Crystal Garden on Friday, March 29, from 8 to 1.

Entertainment will include a special ballet dance, featuring Jack MacDonald, star quarter back of the Revellers' Canadian Football team, with a supporting cast of Jimmy Smith, Mike "Tubby" Ley, "Hank" Rowe, "Street Car" McKeachie, "Grot" Murdoch, Ian Acland and Jack Grogan.

New Pulp Mill Opened By Sidney Roofing

Wheels of the Sidney Roofing & Paper Company's new pulp mill on the Industrial Reserve turned over for the first time this morning as Mayor Andrew McGavin threw in the switch which set in motion a 500-horsepower electric motor that operates the grinders.

The new mill replaces the one that was destroyed by fire last August and also signals a step forward in the company's expansion program estimated to cost around $125,000.

Fifty people were present for the informal ceremony at 10.30 in the switch room of the mill building, including E. G. Rowe, bottom, deputy minister of trade and industry, several directors of the company, Frank J. Barker of Calgary, one of the company's principal distributors on the prairies, and B. P. Schwengers, Vancouver Island distributor.

"It is a great pleasure for me to officiate at the opening of this new building," Mayor McGavin said. "The extension of this plant means putting more men to work and I can tell you that even 10 or a dozen men added to the payroll means quite a bit to the city."

"I congratulate you on your enterprise in going ahead with this expansion. In pressing this button that starts the motor I express the hope it will not stop for a long time."

The mayor was introduced by R. Logan Mayhew, assistant manager. With R. W. Mayhew, manager, he afterwards conducted the guests through the plant, explaining the various processes in the manufacture of pulp.

The new plant has a capacity of 10 tons of pulp per day, all of which is used in the other sections of the company's operations, roofing, felt manufacture and making of boards.

The plant was laid out by Arthur Saunders, a Victoria U.B.C. graduate who has been with the company for years. John Dooley, also a Victorian, the company's electrician, installed the 500-horsepower motor which is one of the largest individual units in any plant in the province. General superintendent of the work is Mitchell Thom, who has been with the company since he returned from overseas in the last war.

FOR FUTURE EXPANSION

Mr. Logan Mayhew explained that the new mill was built with a view to expansion in the future. It is now equipped with one grinder but has room for the installation of three more. The mill building is 100x60 feet. In its construction "fiberglass" insulating board manufactured by the company was used.

To be opened in a few days is a new 175x50 permanent warehouse of concrete and steel construction, completed at a cost of $16,000. A new 200-horsepower boiler is also being installed in the plant at a cost of $11,000.

Mr. Mayhew said it is also planned to put in a new screen room, with four new screens and to rebuild the felt-making machine for increased production.

Total outlay for the work now under way is approximately $65,000. Mr. Mayhew explained, and a further project of about $60,000 is contemplated. Details of this may be announced shortly.

Mr. Mayhew said the expansion program will take care of current needs and provide extra capacity to care for postwar conditions.

eastern Europe appeared to react hopefully today to the Russian-Finnish peace.

Authoritative quarters in Hungary, bordering both the Soviet Union and Germany, asserted the price exacted of the Finns was "relatively cheap" for ending a hopeless war.

Rumanian officials were confident Germany is dissuading Russia from any attempt to regain Bessarabia, at least while Germany wants Rumanian oil and grain.

News of the Finnish peace was received happily in Bulgaria, where there is strong pro-Russian feeling.

Jugoslav newspapers described the peace as "a blow for the Allies." The semi-official Vreme of Belgrade said the Allied offer of troops for Finland was "very good but came too late."

Gracie Fields to Wed With Monty Banks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gracie Fields, the English movie star, and Monty Banks, her producer, will be married, he says, and maybe soon.

Gracie and Monty, using their real names of Stansfield and Blachl, were surprised at the marriage licence bureau yesterday by reporters. Bank tore up the signed application and both he and Gracie denied their identities as they stomped out of the City Hall.

Today, his feelings unruffled, Banks said the reason for the attempted secrecy was because Miss Fields' mother was seriously ill. He said they would be married, quietly, sometime soon. Miss Fields divorced Archie Pitts in London last year.

"I Had a Great Dad"

"I WAS only a youngster when Dad died quite suddenly.

"It was a big shock to me, for Dad and I had always been real pals. He often told me that he wanted me to have a university education to give me a better start in life. It looked then as though I would never go to college.

"Imagine my surprise when I learned that Dad had taken out life insurance which guarantees the money needed for my education. This pays me $500 each year while I am at university.

"I'll never forget what a great Dad I had. He made sure that I would receive a university education, and he taught me the value of life insurance in providing for the future."

280,000 DEAD— FINN WAR COST

COPENHAGEN (AP)—Foreign military observers today estimated the Finnish-Russian war had cost at least 565,000 casualties, half of them dead.

These sources divided the losses this way: Russia—Approximately 250,000 dead and 250,000 wounded.

Finland—30,000 dead and 35,000 wounded.

The abnormally high percentage of war dead was attributed to the bitter cold weather in which most of the war was fought. Many deaths were from freezing after wounds which otherwise would not have been fatal.

One Danish newspaper correspondent today reported Finnish casualties on the Karelian Isthmus front alone were 30,000, including 2,000 young Finnish officers.

NORMAL SCHOOL

Marking the beginning of two weeks' practice teaching in the schools, the Literary Society of the Normal School held its last meeting before Easter on Friday. Class A, with Miss Rubymay Brown in charge, provided the entertainment in the form of a concert sponsored by the ladies of Lily Pad Lake, a very rural community.

A comprehensive review of the week's news was given by Effie Campbell. Shirley Bebb and Betty Muncey contributed a piano duet, "Petersburgh Sleigh Ride," and Lillian Le Cocq sang "When Song Is Sweet." Dressed as a soldier, Miss Faye Smith, accordionist, gave a spirited rendering of "There's Something About a Soldier" and "Aloha." Frances Steer, ballet dancer, was followed by Lillian (Buck) Walker singing several cowboy songs. "In a Chinese Temple Garden" was the title of Betty McLeary's piano solo. Addie Thompson and Jean Rattray made an effective tap dancing duo, while the Lily Pad

Ladies' Drill Team convulsed the audience with a series of amazing drills. Two delightful solos, "I Passed by Your Window" and "Lady Moon," were sung by Joyce Maidment.

Clyde Kennedy, president, announced the appointment of Miss Rose Stewart as editor and Harry Ferne as manager of the "Ancho," student publication. The thanks of the student body was extended to Mrs. Murphy for her capable management of school lunches, which resulted in an addition to the society's treasury. Edward Tall, president of athletics, presented a handsome aluminium cup to Ernest Hatch, captain of the champs, who defeated the Aces, Terrors, Giants, and Morons in the men's basketball tournament.

Meet Arrows Here Friday

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

IT IS ALL-STAR TEAM time again in the National Hockey League. There is much speculation over the make-up of this season's clubs. One familiar name is almost certain to be missing when the ballots of hockey writers in the six N.H.L. cities are counted and the first and alternate teams are compiled.

Eddie Shore has made the first team in seven of the nine years in which it has been chosen for the Canadian Press. This season the veteran hurling defenceman has left Boston Bruins to devote most of his time to managing and directing his newly-acquired International-American League club at Springfield. He made a few appearances with the Bruins and then was traded to New York Americans, who have used him when he could spare the time.

There will be other changes—some based upon the fading and some upon injuries that have kept players out for long periods and others upon the rise of brilliant youngsters like Boston's famed sauerkraut line. Some writers would elect the high-scoring Krauts from Kitchener, Ont. —Milt Schmidt, Bobby Bauer and Woody Dumart—as a unit.

Dave Kerr of New York Rangers, so far ahead in the league averages that no other goaltender can catch him, is bound to give Frank Brimsek of the Bruins a fight for the position that poked-faced Frank won last season in his first appearance as a big-league goalie. The selectors won't overlook Earl Robertson's work in keeping the Americans going behind a wobbly defence.

Aubrey (Dit) Clapper, selected beside Shore on the defence in 1939, has played better than ever at the blue line for the Bruins since Eddie's departure. What the Boston captain has to worry about most is the continued brilliance of such established defence stars as Eddie Goodfellow of Detroit, Earl Selbert of Chicago and Art Coulter and Ott Heller of the Rangers.

Syl Apps, last year's all-star centre, was out of Toronto's lineup almost continuously for two months this season with injuries. In his absence other pivots attained new prominence. Among them were Schmidt, the league's leading pointmaker; Neil Colville and Phil Watson of the Rangers; Bill Cowley of Boston and Murray Armstrong of the Americans.

Apps' absence also had a detrimental effect on the effectiveness of his linemate, Gordon Drillon, who was named at the right-wing post on last year's first team. Bryan Hextall of the Rangers meanwhile has gone far ahead in the league's goal-getting department. Bauer has made a deep impression and Mush March has kept pinch-hitting for Chicago.

Toe Blake, voted to the left wing berth last year despite the fact he was with the sixth-place Montreal Canadiens, has been handicapped even further by the Canadiens' drop to the cellar. But Blake still is a great player. Dumart has progressed rapidly, with Boston and Bob Davidson of Toronto, Tommy Anderson of the Americans and Johnny Gottselig of Chicago have played their old steady games.

Paul Thompson's great job of coaching at Chicago has earned plaudits everywhere and may win him the coaching position. Cooney Weiland and Frank Boucher, replacing Manager Art Ross and Manager Lester Patrick, respectively, as coaches of the Bruins and Rangers, have maintained a constant fight for first place, while Red Dutton has kept his Americans punching.

Denny Shute Has Serious Operation

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Denny Shute, former holder of the British open and United States Professional Golfers' Association championships, underwent a wrist operation yesterday, and will not know for six months whether he ever can compete again.

A cyst was removed from the bone of his right forearm at the wrist joint and the defect was filled with bone grafted from his shin.

Inter-city Rugby, MacDonald Park, Saturday, 3 p.m. Admission 25c.

It will be Arrows vs. Vancouver Maple Leafs in the British Columbia senior men's basketball playoff at the Willows Sports Centre on Friday and Saturday nights. These will be the first two of the best of five series. Remaining games will be played in Vancouver.

Last night in Vancouver the Maple Leafs captured the main-lane crown from Tooges, taking the fifth and final engagement 47 to 36.

Gordon Woodridge, vice-president of the British Columbia association, announced today the games each night will start at 9. The referees have not been decided yet, although it is expected Bob McMillan will be the Vancouver official with the second to be selected from Victoria. A preliminary will be played each night, commencing at 8.

Tonight from 6:30 to 8 the Arrows will work out at the Sports Centre in their final prep for the series.

LEAFS WIN EASILY

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver Maple Leafs moved along the playoff trail which leads to the Canadian amateur basketball championship here last night when they overcame Tooges 47 to 36 in the deciding game of the Intercity senior basketball league best-of-five final series.

Paced by school-teacher Jimmy Bardsley, the Leafs shook off Tooges 16 to 10 in the first quarter and increased their margin to 29 to 21 at the end of the half. The third period saw them leading by 10 points, 39 to 29.

The fast-stepping Bardsley scored 11 points of his game total of 18 in the first half and outshone the former Winnipeg hooper, George McConnell, who tallied only five points for the luckless Tooges.

Close behind Bardsley on the winning team was tall Joe Ross, who tossed in 13 points, and next was Al Beaton with six. Bob Osborne was best for the losers, tallying 14 points, while Jack Edmondson was next with six.

Only two players left the floor on personnel during the evening. Art Wiloughby, Joe Ross and Rann Mathison piled up three in the first half but managed to stay in the game.

Four persons in the last quarter sent Ralph (Hunk) Henderson of the Leafs to the showers, while Tooges lost Russ Kennington.

THREATENED ONCE

Tooges threatened only once during the fast tilt. Just before the halftime whistle sounded they had moved up to within three points of the Leafs, but Ross broke loose with two quick baskets to stop the rally.

Tooges opened the scoring in the first minute of play, when McConnell faked Henderson out of position and scored a neat basket, and Jimmy Pratt followed it up with a free throw to give Tooges a 3 to 0 edge.

The margin was short lived, however, for Ross came back with a successful free throw and Bardsley with another free toss and two baskets to make it 6 to 3. Leafs continued to draw ahead as Ross and Bardsley peppered the Tooges net with shots.

As Leafs entered the second half they began playing cautiously in order to conserve their eight-point margin, rushing in for a basket only when the way was clear.

A total of 18 fouls were called on the Leafs by the officials, while Tooges were caught with 13.

Teams and scores follow: Maple Leafs—Bardsley 18, Wiloughby 2, Ross 13, Henderson 4, Mathison 4, Parson, Wright, Beaton 6, Watson, Ritchie.

Tooges—Purves 5, Gordon 3, Osborne 14, McConnell 5, Pratt 3, Edmondson 6, Kennington, Hay, Whyte, Lee.

Secrecy for Paychek

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK (AP) — A good long-distance Kentucky Derby bet is Carrier Pigeon, 30 to 1. Now they've got Bill Terry angling for Johnny Hudson of Brooklyn and Lew Riggs of the Cincinnati Reds. Johnny Paychek will do his drilling for Joe Louis behind locked doors, just as George Carpentier did for Dempsey. Frank DeMarco of the New York Giants is slated to replace the unsigned Joe Medwick on the National League all-star squad.

Bill Rand, Chicago promoter, is inviting virtually every heavyweight in the United States to enter a seven-show elimination tournament to find somebody to fight Joe Louis.

Attention, Judge Landis: The St. Louis Cardinals will concentrate 68 farm hands at Columbus, Ga., beginning March 18. (Looks like good pickings.)

Lanny Ross, the songster, who set the quarter-mile record for the Penna. plays in 1937, still keeps in shape by trotting around Central Park every morning, rain or shine.

Dixie Walker gave the rest of the daffy Brooklyn Dodgers something to shoot at by reporting at attendance.

Today's guest star, C. M. Gibbs, Baltimore Sun: "There is a suspicion in Florida that there is a sinister move afoot to kill wrestling entirely. ... Tony Galento is being trucked around the state, appearing as referee in most of the bouts."

Shipstead and Johnson, the St. Paul ice show promoters and skaters, netted $400,000 last year—all of it gravy except their manager's cut. Has the N.B.A. taken a mail vote and decided to crown Petey Scalzo featherweight champ effective April 1. ... All right, we're just asking.

During his holdout campaign Red Ruffing paid a catcher to come around every day and help him get in shape.

CLAPPER VOTED MOST VALUABLE

BOSTON (AP) — By unanimous vote, Capt. Dit Clapper was adjudged the "most valuable" Boston Bruins player today by the Boston hockey writers and will be presented the Elizabeth Dufresne trophy.

The only others so honored in the last five years were goalie Tiny Thompson, now with Detroit Red Wings, and Eddie Shore, who now divides his competitive time between his Springfield International-American League club and the New York Americans.

Two Junior Grid Battles Saturday

By EDDIE BRIETZ

All four junior Canadian Football League teams will see action on Saturday. These games wind up the league schedule.

The draw brings together the two strongest teams and the two in the lower brackets.

Jimmy Smith's V.H.S. Alumni squad, pace-setters, will take on the second-place Dominions and Painter's Oak Bay Bruins, cellar occupants, battle Jim Skellern's Fairfield Blue Devils, third-place team.

If ground conditions at Central Park are suitable to stage the games they will be held there. If not the program will be run off at Heywood Avenue.

First game starts at 1:45. The second game opens at 3:15.

MIDGET LEAGUE

In the opening game of the midget Canadian football league played Monday, St. Louis College defeated the Oak Bay team at Heywood Avenue.

The midget's season schedule follows:

March 16, St. Louis College vs. Fairfield, 10 a.m.

March 18, Centrals vs. Oak Bay, 4 p.m.

March 22, Oak Bay vs. Fairfield, 1:30 p.m.

March 30, St. Louis College vs. Centrals, 1:30 p.m.

April 1, Fairfield vs. Centrals, 4 p.m.

April 6, No. 1 team vs. No. 3 team, 1:30 p.m.; No. 2 team vs. No. 4 team (doubleheader).

April 13, winners of above series will meet in the final.

Teams in Final

Victoria and Mount View High soccer events meet at the Athletic Park tomorrow in the inter-high championship for the Colon Cup. Kick-off is scheduled for 3:45. Dave McMillan will referee.

Mount View, present holder of the silverware, are slight favorites for the final and will play the "Sarge" team they used in defeating Mount Douglas 3 to 1 in the semifinal. There will be a few changes in the line-up Victoria used in defeating Esquimalt 3 to 0 to gain the final. Louie McCormick star forward out with a recent injury, will probably return to Victoria's front rank and will give it added scoring punch.

Line-ups follow: Mount View—Flannigan, Brookman, Carter, G. Adams, Kennedy, Palliser, H. Adams, Main, Perkins, Newman, Smith, Dunlop and Scott.

Victoria High—Okell, Clark, K. Lee, Jennings, Donaghe, D. Lee, Popham, Bisenenden, Fuller, McCormick and Pickford. Subs, Evans, Carter and Davies.

Dods 446, E. Walton 613, low score 482, handicap 168. Total 2,665.

Locky 13 won two.

Radicals—A. Mathew 380, P. Ferguson 528, L. Hughes 697, M. Bentley 471, V. No. 446, handicap 111. Total 2,562.

Rangers—K. McKenzie 579, M. G. Shepherd 385, Gladys Inglis 358, Gladys Rayburn 492, M. Harknett 377, handicap 165. Total 2,389.

Radicals won three.

Merry Macs—E. Ray 497, M. Foulds 417, R. Fisher 491, L. Bechtel 361, P. Rousley 486, handicap 276. Total 2,654.

WATSON'S MEN'S WEAR—W. Johnston 544, G. Law 537, C. Steele 512, H. Paulding 494, J. Quinn 494. Total 2,122.

Cards Travel, Games Tonight

Jack Taylor and his Victoria Cardinals, smart senior B girls' squad, departed on the afternoon boat for Vancouver, where they will take on L.X.L.s tonight in a sudden-death struggle for the coast championship.

The winner will meet the interior champions for the B.C. title. I.X.L.s are unbeaten this season.

If basketball fans wish to witness one of the best women's hoop struggles of the season, they should journey to the High School gym tonight. There Yeaman's Unitys and Coach Axel Kinnear's Palm Dairy will collide in the second game of their best-of-three series for the city senior A women's championship.

Unitys fell to defeat, 42 to 27, in the first game, but are determined to climb onto the victory wagon tonight.

This tilt will feature a three-game program. It is the middle attraction. The final game will see Chinese Students oppose the smart Eight Aces quintette, island finalists this year. The opening attraction will start at 7.

At the Sports Centre last night Junior Caveys took the measure of Port Alberni, 16 to 14, in a low-scoring game as they opened their island junior championship series. The second and final game of the total-point series will be played in Port Alberni tomorrow night. At the halfway mark Victoria had a 9 to 8 lead.

W. Stipe and Bob Macmurchie refereed.

Teams and scores follow: Port Alberni—White 6, Gill 2, West 2, Hedman 3, Carter, Forrester, Watt, Nelson, Mosher, and Kendall 1.

Victoria—Ransom 5, Chimizu, Hitchman 2, Chunggranes 2, Allen, Huchbrook 5, Kershaw 2, and Baxter.

That made it five in a row for Joe McCarthy's crew over the National Leaguers. They gave the impression they could win whenever they pleased.

Yesterday the Reds didn't have to look at Joe DiMaggio, Bill Dickey or Red Ruffing, the three who dealt them such sustained misery in the world series, yet the result was the same. Gordon knocked across the winning run in the eighth, while Steve Sundra, one of the second-line Yank pitchers, baffled the Reds in the late innings.

McCarthy is the one manager with absolutely no worry for his $35,000 job, even if the Yankees should change hands this year, as there is a recurring rumor that they will.

As for the Reds, they aren't doing so well. There is a slowly mounting doubt among training camp observers that they will be able to repeat in the National League, despite the superiority of their pitching. They still must be counted the favorites, but unless they solve their outfield problem there might be a decided shift to the St. Louis Cardinals by the time the race begins.

Schmidt and Bauer Gain in Scoring

Only two members of the big seven—Milt Schmidt and Bobby Bauer—gained ground last night as Boston Bruins topped New York Rangers 2 to 1 in the only National Hockey League game of the night.

Bauer got one of the Bruins' goals with Schmidt drawing an assist. Bauer's point put him in a second-place tie with the third member of the kraut line, Woody Dumart.

Leaders follow:

G. A. Pts. Schmidt, Boston, 21 30 51

Dumart, Boston, 21 20 41

Bauer, Boston, 17 24 41

Hextall, Rangers, 24 15 39

N. Colville, Rangers, 19 19 38

Cowley, Boston, 13 25 38

Locking Leading in Minor Ice Scoring

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Norm Locking of Syracuse Stars increased to four points his lead in the International-American Hockey League scoring race last week. Only one week of the regular season remains.

Locking, who held a one-point margin in the last tabulation, now stands at 57, with Freddy Thurrier of Springfield Indians, an upstart in the high-scoring division, a close second with 56 points.

Pete Bessone of Pittsburgh Hornets, with 56 minutes spent on the fence, had no rival within 23 minutes in penalty statistics.

Armada Club Re-elects Cox

Captain O. Cox was re-elected president of the Armada Tennis Club at the annual meeting held this week in Spencer's dining room. Sixty members attended. G. E. Atter was elected vice-president, and D. Humphries, secretary-treasurer. The executive committee: Misses N. Stonham and B. Christie and G. H. Walton; G. Holliday, and H. Walton; games committee, Mrs. R. Young, Miss Stonham, C. E. Atter, D. Bird, D. Humphries; tea committee, Mrs. A. Gray, Mrs. Tyldesley, Mrs. A. Laundry and Misses Peggy Frost and B. Ryden.

Following a fine entertainment program a business session was held at which officers were named and plans made for the coming season. Capt. Cox presented prizes and cups to winners of various tournaments and 1939 reports were submitted.

It was decided to hold the annual open handicap tournament the third week in June.

Those taking part in the entertainment were: Mrs. E. Holliday, Miss P. Walton and D. Oldham, vocal solos; Miss Joy Merriam, piano; and Misses M. and B. members of Miss P. Clough's School of Dancing, who gave a Mexican dance and tap routine. Ted Holloway was at the piano for the community singing.

Davis Matched With McCreedy

Wee Willie Davis, one of the so-called "bad men" of the wrestling game, will have to show a little more than his rough work if he wants to win his bout here Saturday night against Earl McCreedy, present holder of the Canadian championship, and former British Empire Games titleholder.

This will be the main event of Promoter Art Buller's first card to be presented at the Army and Navy arena.

In McCreedy, Davis will go up against a wrestler who really knows his business. Both men are among the biggest in the sport and there should be plenty of action when they tangle. Davis tips the scales at 260 and McCreedy goes around 230.

For his semi-weekly Buller will secure two well-known heavyweights with local boys appearing on the preliminary.

First bout will start at 8:30.

Cincinnati Has Outfield Problem

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Those who wondered last fall how long Cincinnati Reds and New York Yankees could have gone on playing the world series before the Reds won a game had the question partially answered, at least, when the champs poured it on again in an exhibition battle here yesterday, 8 to 7.

That made it five in a row for Joe McCarthy's crew over the National Leaguers. They gave the impression they could win whenever they pleased.

Yesterday the Reds didn't have to look at Joe DiMaggio, Bill Dickey or Red Ruffing, the three who dealt them such sustained misery in the world series, yet the result was the same. Gordon knocked across the winning run in the eighth, while Steve Sundra, one of the second-line Yank pitchers, baffled the Reds in the late innings.

Two Hoop Games At West Road Hall

Friday evening in West Road Hall, two basketball games will be presented, followed by a dance and refreshments.

The first game at 8 will see Bob Whyte's Adverts, Victoria girls' squad, meet West Road girls, R. A. R.'s Victoria team, oppose West Road senior men, in the other fixture.

Saanich Eleven Beats Champions

Tillikum's young Milton Wharf found the goal with a shot late in the game to give the Saanich Schools' soccer eleven a 2 to 1 victory over Oak Bay Schools' team yesterday at Oak Bay Park in a Fragments of France Cup semi-final.

The defeat ousted Oak Bay from further competition in this cup series. They won the trophy last year.

The final will be played Friday at Oak Bay Park with the Saanich kids taking on Victoria. Play starts at 3:30.

Lack of finish in the forward line caused the downfall of the heavier Oak Bay footballers. In the opening half they had the ball in enemy territory most of the time, but missed plenty of scoring chances.

In the final half of play the Saanich team hit its stride and looked the better squad.

Saanich was first to break into the scoring column. A neat combination movement was polished off with Blakemore, forward, blasting the leather past Birchett in the goalmouth. Saanich managed to hold Oak Bay off for some time after but they finally broke through with the equalizer, Walker doing the scoring.

There was a decided improvement in Saanich play in the last 45 minutes, but it wasn't until the game was in its dying stages that little man Wharf booted the sphere into the hemp just under the crossbar.

W. J. "Bill" Cull refereed.

Teams follow: Saanich (Mar. Tolmie), Crouch (Mount View), Leiper (Mount View), Youden (Mount Douglas), MacArthur (Tolmie), Wallis (MacKenzie), Crawford (Mount View), Blakemore (Cloverdale), Der (Tolmie), Scott, Eade, Wharf and Lister (Tillikum).

Oak Bay—Birchett (St. Michael's), Clark (High School), Blake (Monterey), Forrest (St. Michael's), Oliver (Glenlyon), Prior (High School), Denham (Monterey), Jukes (St. Michael's), Pitts (Glenlyon), Walker (Monterey) and McGivern (Glenlyon).

Spaniard Described Habits of Buffalo

While Coronado and his visitors were in Cibola, several visitors came to see them. They were Indians from a place about 125 miles to the east.

Odd picture of a buffalo made after Coronado's return from his great trip.

The visitors brought presents of shields and animal hides. They told Coronado about certain large animals, and showed him a picture of one of them. The picture had been painted on the skin of a buffalo.

The Spaniards believed the animals must be cattle, but they were puzzled by the woolly hair on the hides which had been given them. This hair did not look like the coat of a cow.

That was the first time the explorers had seen American buffalo hides. Later, when they marched eastward and entered the Rio Grande valley, they saw buffaloes, or bison, in real life.

Writing about the animals, one of the Spaniards said:

"The bulls have a short face. Their eyes stand out at the side, and they can see who is following them. They have long beards, like goats.

"They have a hump which is larger than a camel's. The horns are short and thick, and cannot be seen very much above the hair.

"They shed some of their hair in the month of May. They rub against trees in small valleys to get the hair off, and keep this up until only the down is left. When they run, they carry the tail straight up in the air. Their little calves are red, just like the calves of our cattle, but they change their color when they grow older.

"They travel in such large numbers that nobody could count them. Their wool is fine, and ought to make good cloth."

The Spaniards often spoke of these animals as "hump-backed bulls" or "hump-backed cows." The fact is that buffaloes, or bison, are distant relatives of cattle.

Coronado and his men moved eastward into a central part of Texas. Then most of them turned westward, but Coronado and about 30 mounted soldiers headed straight to the north.

HOROSCOPE

Thursday, March 14

Benevolent aspects rule today, but adverse influences are active. The morning hours are fortunate for men in authority, executives in government or business. There is a sign promising to those who seek recognition or promotion. News favorable to the navy is indicated.

This should be a lucky day for seeking employment. Both boys and girls should succeed in finding right places in the world of work. The stars encourage beginnings and seem to pre-arrange good fortune for young folk with trained hands and well disciplined minds.

Economy and efficiency will be marked in the management of manufacturing plants. The realization that the hazards of war will cause increased financial problems will inspire caution among those who have foresight. A new invention will start success for manufacturers and distributors.

Problems relating to aliens will continue to cause dissatisfaction. Coming months will offer much employment for men trained in the various trades. Machinists will be in great demand.

Planetary aspects contribute to secrecy, vacillation and uncertainty in diplomatic circles. As fear spreads among European nations there will be sudden changes of front among friends and foes. This is to be one of the most critical months in a year of evil portents. Democracy is to be put to the supreme test.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of strain and uncertainties that end in good fortune. The nerves should be safeguarded against fatigue and anxiety.

Children born on this day probably will be sensitive and inclined to extreme caution, which may breed the habit of worry. They should be carefully trained.

Moving pictures were shown at the Langford Women's Institute Hall Monday night by Jack Bramham, junior forest warden of the Canadian Forestry Association.

"Do It Now" will be an amusing sketch presented Wednesday evening at Otter Point camp by the Esquimalt Dramatic Club.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Does a mature professional woman often make a mistake in marriage? When I first grew up I thought of nothing but getting in a position where I could earn money to help my family, and for 15 years I have done this, sacrificing my own needs to do this. In the meantime, I have also put myself through college. Now as I grow older I am dissatisfied and crave love, companionship and a home of my own. I am in love with a man of good, honest character, a good disposition and who cares for me. But my family seriously object to my marrying him because he is not as well educated as I am, because he is poor and is 14 years older than I am. They say that if I marry him I will soon regret it, but I believe that if I have had sense enough to have held a good position so long and to put myself through college, I have intelligence enough to know my own mind and pick out my own husband. What should I do? Should I take my family's advice and give him up, or follow the dictates of my own heart and marry him? UNHAPPY.

Answer: Neither age nor intelligence prevents people from making mistakes in marriage. But if any woman is ever qualified to be a good husband-pick, it surely should be a mature professional woman.

For she is beyond the adolescent being-in-love-with-love stage in which a girl sees her Fairy Prince in every pimply-faced youth who crosses her path. She has been thrown with enough men in business to have her romantic illusions about the stronger sex pretty well dispelled, and so to be able to pick the sheep from the goats and decide which line of faults and frailties she would find easiest to put up with. And, above all, she is old enough to know her own mind and what her own tastes in men are, and that is the vital thing in marriage. Because if a woman has the sort of a husband she likes, he is the right sort for her.

DOROTHY DIX.

CHEVROLET Preferred AND HOW!

1939 Figures just released for the first time show that for Canada and the United States, CHEVROLET is once again away out in front with a lead of 110,000 cars over its nearest competitor. With some 25 makes to choose from this means that almost one out of every four buyers of a New Car plumped for CHEVROLET. And in 1940 everything points to a similar or better performance.

Arena Campaign

First Subscription Of $500 Received

George Strath, former hockey player, who would like to see hockey return to the city, has come forward with the largest contribution to date in the arena campaign, which opened through-out Greater Victoria yesterday. His contribution was $500.

A total of $6,300.50 was pledged yesterday. Frank Paulding, campaign director, reported canvassers were met cordially and practically every person canvassed took a $10 membership in the arena.

The campaign office has distributed 14,200 pledge cards. Yesterday's promised total represented only 200 of them.

Mr. Paulding is confident the amounts pledged will be collected, pointing out that 98 per cent of the pledges in the Community Chest drive and 97 per cent of the promises in the former Y.M.C.A. campaigns had been collected.

BOX LACROSSE GIVES $250

W. C. Moresby, K.C., president of the Greater Victoria Box Lacrosse Association, presented the campaign manager with a contribution of $250 yesterday. He stated it was from the trust fund of the association's promotion committee.

A pledge of $250 came from the Victoria Longmover Ice Association, but at the same time stated it felt sure an additional $250 could be raised when all the membership had been canvassed.

The campaign lasts until next Tuesday, by which time the organizers hope the funds promised will be sufficient to ensure the building of a modern arena and auditorium in the city.

SECOND TRIAL OF GORDON VANCE

A new jury was empaneled and the second trial of William Gordon Vance, charged with manslaughter, opened before Chief Justice Morrison in the Assize Court here today.

The first jury disagreed in the original trial, which ended last night. Those serving for the present hearing include Thomas P. McConnell, foreman; William N. Goldie, Alexander W. Millar, James H. Temple, Herbert Lawrence, George Heather, William Mader, Richard Tanner, C. W. Quest, Wm. N. Caley, Edward Callan and Morris Kersey.

Vance was committed for trial following the death of Loy Hoy, Chinese pushcart peddler, who was struck and fatally injured by Vance's car on Government Street on the evening of December 29 last.

At the beginning of the 20th century Canada had many chartered banks. While head offices were scattered all over the east then, today they were mainly situated in Montreal and Toronto.

While there were more banks represented here 29 years ago, the service to the public was never as complete and far-reaching as at the present time, he said.

The speaker outlined the many services the banks offered the public and strongly urged the young businessmen to establish connections with banks, and to consult their bank managers on any business subjects about which they were in doubt.

TOWN TOPICS

Thomas and Carl Rudolph, jointly charged with attempting to break and enter the Cord-Piston Ring premises on Yates Street with intent to commit theft pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning.

They were sentenced, when Magistrate Hall said he would hear character evidence.

An "arena" rally and dance will be held on Monday evening in the A.O.F. Hall for youth groups interested in the forum campaign. The program will be in charge of the Youth Council. Speakers will include representatives from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Kenneth Priestley, church groups and Mun Hope, member of the national committee of the Canadian Youth Congress. John Keziere, president of the Youth Council, will be chairman.

A motorist's negligence in failing to put his new license plates on his car, although he purchased them before the license year expired, cost him $10. Charged with failing to properly display his 1940 plates, five days after the license year ended, the motorist said he had been so busy he did not have a chance to put the plates on after purchasing them March 1.

He said he carried them on the windshield when he was driving, but when he parked he put them under the seat because he could not lock the car and feared they would be stolen.

REVIEWS HISTORY OF BANKING HERE

Changes in the Canadian banking system over the last 40 years were described to members of the Victoria Credit Granters' Association yesterday at their weekly luncheon meeting by G. Hamilton Harman, manager of the Bank of Montreal.

Bank representation was at its peak in Victoria in 1911, Mr. Harman said. There were 12 operating here, namely the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the Bank of Montreal, the Royal Bank of Canada, the Dominion Bank, the Imperial Bank of Canada, the Bank of Toronto, and the Bank of Nova Scotia; the Bank of Vancouver, which failed; the Bank of British North America, the Merchants' Bank of Canada, the Quebec Bank, the Union Bank of Canada and the Northern Crown Bank.

The absorption of the smaller banks in Canada followed the lead given in the Old Country, where many of the small banks were taken over by those in stronger positions. The last five mentioned among those in operation here in 1911 were absorbed, the speaker said.

At the beginning of the 20th century Canada had many chartered banks. While head offices were scattered all over the east then, today they were mainly situated in Montreal and Toronto.

While there were more banks represented here 29 years ago, the service to the public was never as complete and far-reaching as at the present time, he said.

Bank Borrowing Meets B.C. Loan

Announcement that he has made a temporary arrangement with the Canadian Bank of Commerce for $3,000,000 to pay off a short-term bond maturity on Friday was made today by Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance.

Mr. Hart said he had decided on this course instead of going to the financial markets with a refunding bond issue.

The decision was made due to the saturated condition of the bond market which he found on his recent visit east.

"A careful survey was made of market conditions to determine the desirability of a refunding at this time," the minister said.

In view of the recent Dominion war issue, the heavy refinancing by the province of Quebec, and the demands on the market by other provinces, it was decided that this was not an opportune time to call for bids, and consequently temporary accommodation was sought from the Canadian Bank of Commerce, in order to effect the repayment of the maturity at its due date and the postponement of the refunding to a more opportune time.

The money will be obtained from the bank on security of a treasury bill-bearing interest at 3 1/2 per cent, he said.

The finance minister's announcement left undecided the question of a new loan for further road construction. It is reported the government is considering a $10,000,000 loan on road work. In view of his statement today it is expected the possibility of a road loan will be left for a few months until the market conditions are better for refunding the present maturity and obtaining new funds for roads.

City Hall Briefs

The City Council will start its perusal of 1940 estimates tomorrow afternoon, it was learned at the City Hall today. Pruning sessions were originally listed for Friday but were advanced. The meeting will start with the formal passage of a property exchange by-law.

Esquimalt will be furnished with a copy of the draft tender form for a unified transportation system without delay, F. L. Shaw, city solicitor, chairman of the municipal officials' special committee compiling the document, said today.

His announcement followed a letter from Esquimalt stating that municipality had not yet secured a completed form and could not pass judgment on it until the document was before the review and councillors.

Complaints of members of the local building trade over certain regulations governing electrical installations which the builders claimed, increased construction costs, were heard at the City Hall today. Officials of the building inspector's department indicated the regulations were provincial matters and beyond amendment by the city.

Efforts to have the Junior Chamber of Commerce extend its annual "clean-up and paint-up" week to Greater Victoria instead of the city alone, were made by Alderman B. J. Gadsden, chairman, at a meeting of the inter-municipal committee last night.

The Victoria Little Theatre Association today took out a building permit for $650 additions to the association's premises at 1166 Burrard Avenue. Yesterday a permit for $550 improvements was granted to T. Miller for a home at 2127 Chamber Street. Other minor work was covered in other permits issued today.

DEATH CALLS POLICE OFFICER

Subinspector James Henry Johnson, officer commanding the Fort George subdivision of the B.C. Police, died at Prince George after a lingering illness, according to word received by Provincial Police headquarters this morning.

Subinspector Johnson had been a member of the force for four years, following his transfer from the control staff of the Liquor Control Board. When first appointed in 1936 he was made officer in charge of Vancouver district. Two years later he was transferred to Prince George.

He was well known here, having been in this city in the course of his duties with the Liquor Control Board. He was here last year when B.C. Police executives gathered to discuss arrangements for the Royal Visit.

He was born in Kendall, Westmoreland, England, and saw active service with the 2nd Dragoons in the South African War and the 7th Battalion, C.E.F., during the Great War.

He is survived by his widow in Prince George and one daughter, who is attending school here.

JOHNSTON — Hugh John Johnston died yesterday in the Royal Jubilee Hospital, aged 88 years. Mr. Johnston was born in Killeagh, County Down, Ireland, and had been a resident of this city for 28 years. He was formerly employed by the C.P.R. in the capacity of quartermaster.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. J. Palmer, 209 Henry Street, Victoria, and five grandsons in Glasgow, Scotland, and one grandson in Manchester, England. The remains are resting at the chapel of the Sands Mortuary and will be removed to the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes on Thursday evening for a prayer service at 8 and on Friday morning Father J. R. Buckley will celebrate mass at 9. Interment in Ross Bay Cemetery.

BULLEN — Frederick Frank Bullen died suddenly yesterday in his 63rd year. He was born in Bagshot, Surrey, England, and had been a resident of this city for 28 years, for many years residing at 1035 Lodge Avenue, Saanich. He is survived by his widow, at home, a brother in Australia and a sister in England. The remains are resting at Sands Mortuary, where the funeral will take place on Friday at 3.30. Rev. O. L. Jull will officiate and the remains will be laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay.

MAYNARD — Rev. A. E. Whitehouse conducted funeral services yesterday afternoon at Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel for Ernest George Maynard, in the presence of many sorrowing friends. The remains were cremated in Royal Oak Crematorium, with the following as pallbearers: S. White, M. J. Little, F. W. Francis, T. F. Covey, J. G. Simpson and C. F. Moriarty.

FUNERAL NOTICE
Funeral services for the late Joseph Sullivan will be held at St. Andrew's Cathedral at 8:45 a.m. Friday, March 15. Mr. Sullivan was a member of the Naval Veterans Branch No. 42 of the Canadian Legion, R.E.S.L. He served for 18 years in the Royal Navy and also served in the R.C.N.V.R. during the Great War of 1914-1918. Mr. Sullivan was also a life member of the Army and Navy Veterans of Canada. Naval Veterans are especially requested to attend.

Baseball Gossip
ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics' "Injury Jinx" has connected with Benny McCoy, the $45,000 beauty, but not too seriously. The rookie second sacker was struck on the Adam's apple by a batted ball in pre-game practice yesterday but wasn't badly hurt. Sam Chapman and Bob Johnson are the other Athletics on the sick list.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla.—If the start is any indication, New York Giants are due to get some real flinging this season from their top-flight pitchers. Carl Hubbell, Hal Schumacher and Bill Lohrman set the St. Louis Cardinals down with three hits and three unearned runs yesterday. Hubbell, off whom the runs were scored, pitched only 17 balls in the first two innings. Schumacher pitched to only 10 batters in three innings and Lohrman retired nine straight after giving a hit and a walk.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Although their record of 24 strikeouts in three exhibitions hardly looks like the usual Yankee performance, New York's world champions are beginning to take on the appearance of the 1939 club. Babe Dahlgren made his first appearance against the Cincinnati Reds yesterday and Joe DiMaggio reached camp in-time for a workout.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas—Catching already appears to be one of the St. Louis Browns' major weaknesses this season. President Donald Barnes wants to trade holdout Joe Glenn, whose offered stipend is going down instead of up, for Frank Pytlak of Cleveland or Frank Hayes of Philadelphia, but apparently it's no deal. The Browns' other receivers are Sam Harshbarger and Bob Swift.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Billie Burke, the flutney comedienne, is a grandmother. Her daughter, Patricia, welcomed a seven-pound daughter yesterday. Patricia, whose father was the late F. William Ziegfeld, is the wife of William Robert Stephenson, former New York dance instructor.

WESTS WORK OUT
A workout of the Victoria West football team will be held tomorrow night at 8 in the Victoria Boys' Athletic and Hobby Club, top of Cook Street Hill.

SIDE GLANCES

Smart? I'll say he's smart! He wrote Doris a love letter in Latin and she can't even translate it!

CAPITOL HOLDS 'GONE WITH WIND'
Large and appreciative audiences and desire of hundreds of the patrons who have been unable to attend the showing of "Gone With the Wind" are responsible for the announcement by the management of the Capitol Theatre today that Margaret Mitchell's best-selling tale of the old south will be held over for another week in Victoria.

Shown in its entirety, exactly as presented at its famous Atlanta premiere, this picture offers proof of why it was awarded nine academy awards. The coloring and production of the film is so perfect that one is unaware of the unaccustomed length.

Scarlett O'Hara is brought to the screen with superb vitality by Vivien Leigh. Others outstanding players are Olivia de Havilland, Clark Gable and Leslie Howard.

'JUDGE HARDY AND SON' AT ATLAS
Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and the rest of the Hardy Family bring new thrills, heart interest and comedy to the Atlas Theatre where "Judge Hardy and Son," latest of the family series, is now showing.

This time, instead of traveling the family works out its destinies at home in Carver, Mickey becomes involved in complications with three new charmers and his sweetheart, played by Ann Rutherford. When the mother of the family becomes ill and is close to death, he turns from boyhood to manhood, inspires his worried father with a new courage, dares a raging flood to bring his sister to her mother's bedside, and figures in gripping dramatic moments.

DOMINION THEATRE
The Dominion Theatre's feature attraction is "We Are Not Alone," starring Paul Muni. Based on the novel by James Hilton, author of "Goodbye Mr. Chips," it marks Muni's first modern, romantic role in several years. Jane Bryan, Flora Robson, Raymond Severn, Una O'Connor and a score of others appear in support of the star. Edmund Goulding directed and Max Steiner wrote the superb musical score which accompanies the film production.

PLAZA THEATRE
In the Swiss mountain scenes in Alexander Korda's "Over the Moon," the new comedy in Technicolor at the Plaza Theatre, Merle Oberon, the star, appears in original winter sports clothes designed by herself. She is said to have what is probably the best "dress sense" in the picture business and when planning the wardrobe for her films always takes an active part with Rene Hubert in the selection of materials.

OAK BAY THEATRE
Basil Rathbone in Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Hound of the Baskervilles," portrays the famous Sherlock Holmes in the 20th Century-Fox film now showing at the Oak Bay Theatre. Nigel Bruce plays Dr. Watson.

NEW ROLE—Paul Muni appears in the feature "We Are Not Alone," now showing at the Dominion Theatre.

'JUDGE HARDY AND SON' AT ATLAS
Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and the rest of the Hardy Family bring new thrills, heart interest and comedy to the Atlas Theatre where "Judge Hardy and Son," latest of the family series, is now showing.

This time, instead of traveling the family works out its destinies at home in Carver, Mickey becomes involved in complications with three new charmers and his sweetheart, played by Ann Rutherford. When the mother of the family becomes ill and is close to death, he turns from boyhood to manhood, inspires his worried father with a new courage, dares a raging flood to bring his sister to her mother's bedside, and figures in gripping dramatic moments.

DOMINION THEATRE
The Dominion Theatre's feature attraction is "We Are Not Alone," starring Paul Muni. Based on the novel by James Hilton, author of "Goodbye Mr. Chips," it marks Muni's first modern, romantic role in several years. Jane Bryan, Flora Robson, Raymond Severn, Una O'Connor and a score of others appear in support of the star. Edmund Goulding directed and Max Steiner wrote the superb musical score which accompanies the film production.

PLAZA THEATRE
In the Swiss mountain scenes in Alexander Korda's "Over the Moon," the new comedy in Technicolor at the Plaza Theatre, Merle Oberon, the star, appears in original winter sports clothes designed by herself. She is said to have what is probably the best "dress sense" in the picture business and when planning the wardrobe for her films always takes an active part with Rene Hubert in the selection of materials.

OAK BAY THEATRE
Basil Rathbone in Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Hound of the Baskervilles," portrays the famous Sherlock Holmes in the 20th Century-Fox film now showing at the Oak Bay Theatre. Nigel Bruce plays Dr. Watson.
